Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22 – Able & Available – Benefits Eligibility Conditions

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from the August 17, 2022 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that claimant was denied benefits. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on September 21, 2022. Claimant, Jamie Kelley, participated personally. Employer, Wells Enterprises Inc, did not participate. No exhibits were offered or admitted.

ISSUES:

Whether claimant is able to and available for work.
Whether claimant is on an approved leave of absence.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant began working for employer August 15, 2015 as a full-time production worker. Kyle Shoemaker was the claimant's immediate supervisor. The claimant tested positive for COVID-19 in July 2022. The employer required the claimant to take time off work. The claimant felt well enough to continue working but was required to stay home pursuant to the employer's policy. The claimant self-isolated for 5 days per the company requirement and then returned to work.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant was able to and available for work. Benefits are allowed, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(10) provides:

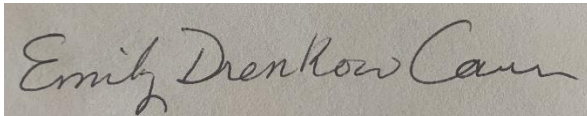

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(10) The claimant requested and was granted a leave of absence, such period is deemed to be a period of voluntary unemployment and shall be considered ineligible for benefits for such period.

Here, claimant was on a mandatory leave of absence during the week ending July 23, 2022. Claimant did not request a leave of absence during these weeks; she would have preferred to continue working. However, due to the pandemic and the risk of exposing coworkers to COVID-19, the employer required claimant to quarantine. Because it was the employer's choice that claimant was placed on a leave of absence and not claimant's choice, the administrative law judge finds that claimant was not on a voluntary leave of absence. Claimant was otherwise able to and available for work. Benefits are allowed, provided she is otherwise eligible.

DECISION:

The August 17, 2022 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. Claimant was able to work and available for work effective July 17, 2022. Benefits are allowed, provided she is otherwise eligible.
