Section 96.3-7 - Recovery of Overpayment of Benefits

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Todd Sharp (claimant) appealed from the May 31, 2006, reference 03, decision, that concluded the claimant was overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $323.00 as a result of a failure to report, or incorrectly reporting, severance pay for the one-week period ending April 29, 2006. After hearing notices were mailed to the claimant's last-known addresses of record, a telephone hearing was held on July 12, 2006. The claimant participated personally.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds that: The claimant worked for the employer from April 23, 2001 until April 3, 2006, as a full-time general manager. When the claimant's employment ended, the employer gave the claimant fifteen days of severance pay, extending through April 24, 2006.

The claimant filed his claim for unemployment insurance benefits with an effective date of April 9, 2006.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.3-7 provides:

7. Recovery of overpayment of benefits. If an individual receives benefits for which the individual is subsequently determined to be ineligible, even though the individual acts in good faith and is not otherwise at fault, the benefits shall be recovered. The department in its discretion may recover the overpayment of benefits either by having a sum equal to the overpayment deducted from any future benefits payable to the individual or by having the individual pay to the department a sum equal to the overpayment.

If the department determines that an overpayment has been made, the charge for the overpayment against the employer's account shall be removed and the account shall be credited with an amount equal to the overpayment from the unemployment compensation trust fund and this credit shall include both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

The administrative law judge concludes that the claimant has been overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $323.00 pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.3-7, as the claimant did receive severance pay for the one-week period ending April 29, 2006.

DECISION:

The May 31, 2006, reference 03, decision, is affirmed. The claimant is overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $323.00.
