

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT
UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE APPEALS

BRYCE A PLEW
Claimant

SEQUEL YOUTH SERVICES OF WOODWARD
Employer

APPEAL NO. 20A-UI-11481-JTT

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 04/26/20
Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code Section 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal
Iowa Code Section 95.5(2)(a) – Discharge for Misconduct

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer filed a late appeal from the June 2, 2020, reference 01, decision that allowed benefits to the claimant, provided he met all other eligibility requirements, and that held the employer's account could be charged, based on the deputy's conclusion that the claimant was discharged on April 14, 2020 for no disqualifying reason. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held on November 10, 2020. Claimant Bryce Plew did not provide a telephone number for the hearing and did not participate. Marcia Dodds represented the employer and presented additional testimony through Ava Niazi. The administrative law judge took official notice of the June 2, 2020, reference 01, decision and received Exhibit 1, the appeal, into evidence.

ISSUES:

Whether the appeal was timely. Whether there is good cause to treat the appeal as timely.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: On June 2, 2020, Iowa Workforce Development mailed the June 2, 2020, reference 01, decision to the employer's address of record. The June 2, 2020, reference 01, decision allowed benefits to the claimant, provided he met all other eligibility requirements, and held the employer's account could be charged, based on the deputy's conclusion that the claimant was discharged on April 14, 2020 for no disqualifying reason. The decision stated that the decision would become final unless an appeal was postmarked by June 12, 2020 or received by the Appeals Bureau by that date. The employer's representative of record has at all relevant times been Thomas & Company. The employer's address of record has at all relevant times been a United States Postal Service post office box assigned to Thomas & Company. The weight of the evidence establishes that the decision was delivered to the address of record in a timely manner, prior to the deadline for appeal. There is no evidence to suggest otherwise. The employer's agent did not take any steps to file an appeal by the June 12, 2020 appeal deadline. On August 21, 2020, Marcia Dodds, Human Resources Director for Sequel Youth Services of Woodward, contacted Thomas & Company for information concerning the status of the matter and learned of the June 2, 2020, reference 01, decision. Ms. Dodds requested that Thomas & Company forward information. On September 16, 2020, Thomas & Company faxed an appeal to the Appeals Bureau. The Appeals Bureau received the appeal on September 16, 2020.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant. The representative shall promptly examine the claim and any protest, take the initiative to ascertain relevant information concerning the claim, and, on the basis of the facts found by the representative, shall determine whether or not the claim is valid, the week with respect to which benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and its maximum duration, and whether any disqualification shall be imposed. The claimant has the burden of proving that the claimant meets the basic eligibility conditions of section 96.4. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to section 96.5, except as provided by this subsection. The claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence showing that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsections 10 and 11, and has the burden of proving that a voluntary quit pursuant to section 96.5, subsection 1, was for good cause attributable to the employer and that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraphs "a" through "h". Unless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision. If an administrative law judge affirms a decision of the representative, or the appeal board affirms a decision of the administrative law judge allowing benefits, the benefits shall be paid regardless of any appeal which is thereafter taken, but if the decision is finally reversed, no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid and this relief from charges shall apply to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

The ten-day deadline for appeal begins to run on the date Workforce Development mails the decision to the parties. The "decision date" found in the upper right-hand portion of the Agency representative's decision, unless otherwise corrected immediately below that entry, is presumptive evidence of the date of mailing. Gaskins v. Unempl. Comp. Bd. of Rev., 429 A.2d 138 (Pa. Comm. 1981); Johnson v. Board of Adjustment, 239 N.W.2d 873, 92 A.L.R.3d 304 (Iowa 1976).

An appeal submitted by mail is deemed filed on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it was received, or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion. See Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-24.35(1)(a). See also Messina v. IDJS, 341 N.W.2d 52 (Iowa 1983). An appeal submitted by any other means is deemed filed on the date it is received by the Unemployment Insurance Division of Iowa Workforce Development. See Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-24.35(1)(b).

The evidence in the record establishes that more than ten calendar days elapsed between the mailing date and the date this appeal was filed. The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott, 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). One question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

The evidence in the record establishes an untimely appeal. The record shows that the appellant did have a reasonable opportunity to file a timely appeal. The weight of the evidence establishes that the decision was delivered to the employer's address of record in a timely manner, prior to the deadline for appeal. The employer presented no evidence to establish otherwise. The decision included the appeal instructions. The appeal process is by design a streamlined process that can be accomplished in minimal time and with minimal effort. The employer's agent and representative of record took no steps to file an appeal by the June 12, 2020 appeal deadline. Even after the employer and the employer's agent communicated on August 21, 2020 about the adverse decision, they further and unreasonably delayed filing an appeal until September 16, 2020. By that time, the appeal was more than three months late. No submission shall be considered timely if the delay in filing was unreasonable, as determined by the division after considering the circumstances in the case. See Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-24.35(2)(c). The failure to file a timely appeal within the time prescribed by the Iowa Employment Security Law was not due to Workforce Development error or misinformation or delay or other action of the United States Postal Service. See Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-24.35(2). There is not good cause to treat the late appeal as a timely appeal. Because the appeal was untimely, the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to disturb the June 2, 2020, reference 01, decision. See Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979) and Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877 (Iowa 1979).

DECISION:

The employer's appeal was untimely. The June 2, 2020, reference 01, decision that allowed benefits to the claimant, provided he met all other eligibility requirements, and that held the employer's account could be charged, based on the deputy's conclusion that the claimant was discharged on April 14, 2020 for no disqualifying reason, remains in effect.

James E. Timberland
Administrative Law Judge

November 17, 2020
Decision Dated and Mailed