DECISION

OC: 05/16/21
Claimant: Respondent (2R)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) - Timeliness of Protest

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Employer, Comprehensive Systems, Inc., filed an appeal from the January 12, 2022 (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision that granted benefits to claimant, so long as they meet all other eligibility requirements due to finding employer's protest untimely as it was submitted 06/08/21, which is after the 06/07/21 deadline. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on February 28, 2022. Claimant, Ashanti Sallis, did not participate. Employer participated through Sheryl Heyenga, human resources director. Official notice was taken of the administrative file and the contents therein. Employer's exhibit of 15 pages (EMPL EXHIBIT of 15 pages) was admitted. The attachments to the appeal are a part of the administrative file. Judicial notice was taken of the administrative file.

ISSUE:

Did the employer file a timely protest?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having heard the testimony and reviewed the evidence in the record, the undersigned finds:

The Notice of Claim was mailed to employer at its correct address on May 28, 2021. Employer timely received the Notice of Claim on or before June 7, 2021. Employer completed and signed the document, dating it June 7, 2021. The Notice of Claim lists a due date of June 7, 2021.

Employer's protest was submitted via fax on June 7, 2021, at 1:43PM to Iowa Workforce Development. The protest was timely received on June 7, 2021, even though the IWD Customer Service stamp date shows late and received June 8, 2021.

Claimant's separation from employment has not yet been the subject of a Benefits Bureau initial interview and decision.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes employer's protest was timely.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark on the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

Another portion of this same Code section dealing with timeliness of an appeal from a representative's decision states that such an appeal must be filed within ten days after notification of that decision was mailed. In addressing an issue of timeliness of an appeal under that portion of this Code section, the Iowa Supreme Court held that this statute prescribing the time for notice of appeal clearly limits the time to do so, and that compliance with the appeal notice provision is mandatory and jurisdictional. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979). The administrative law judge considers the reasoning and holding of the Iowa Supreme Court in that decision to be controlling on this portion of that same Iowa Code section which deals with a time limit in which to file a protest after notification of the filing of the claim has been mailed.

Employer received the Notice of Claim on or before the due date. The protest was faxed, came in to IWD, and was received by IWD all on the due date. Received means when the fax arrives on the machine at IWD, not when it is seen on the fax machine, or removed from the fax machine or stamped received from the fax machine. As such, employer's protest is timely.

DECISION:

The January 12, 2022 (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision is REVERSED. Employer's protest was timely.

REMAND:

The separation issue is remanded to the Benefits Bureau of Iowa Workforce Development for an initial interview and decision.
