APPEAL 22A-UI-17889-ED-T
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 10/24/21
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit
Iowa Code § 96.5(2)A – Discharge for Misconduct

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed an appeal from the October 3, 2022, reference 03 unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based upon his voluntary quit without good cause attributable to the employer. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on November 2, 2022. Claimant, Levi Nelson, participated and testified. . Employer, Kevin McCain, participated through Laura Rooney. No exhibits were offered or admitted.

ISSUE:

Was the separation a layoff, discharge for misconduct or voluntary quit without good cause attributable to the employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant was hired on May 26, 2020 as a full-time poultry side general laborer. The claimant last worked for this employer August 22, 2022. The claimant did not have transportation to get to work on August 23, 2022. The claimant did not call in or show up for work after August 23, 2022. The claimant was never told he had been terminated from work. He was scheduled for six days after August 23, 2022 before the employer removed him from the schedule. Continuing work was available had the claimant reported to work.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's separation from the employment was without good cause attributable to the employer.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25 provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

(Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(1))

- (1) The claimant's lack of transportation to the work site unless the employer had agreed to furnish transportation.

Claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). "Good cause" for leaving employment must be that which is reasonable to the average person, not the overly sensitive individual or the claimant in particular. Uniweld Products v. Indus. Relations Comm'n, 277 So.2d 827 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1973). A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention. Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (Iowa 1980).

While claimant's leaving may have been based upon good personal reasons, it was not for a good-cause reason attributable to the employer according to Iowa law. Claimant's lack of transportation was not caused by the employer. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The October 3, 2022, (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. The claimant voluntarily left his employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are withheld until such time as he has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times his weekly benefit amount, provided he is otherwise eligible.
