APPEAL NO. 10A-UI-07137-S2T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

L A LEASING INC
SEDONA STAFFING
Employer

OC: 04/04/10
Claimant: Respondent (1/R)

Section 96.5-1-j – Separation from Temporary Employer

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Sedona Staffing (employer) appealed a representative's May 10, 2010 decision (reference 01) that concluded Sherry Smith (claimant) was eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits based on her separation from work. After hearing notices were mailed to the parties' last-known addresses of record, a telephone hearing was scheduled for June 6, 2010. The claimant participated personally. The employer participated by Chad Baker, Workers' Compensation Administrator, and Elizabeth Gunnell, Account Manager.

ISSUE:

The issue is whether the claimant was separated from employment for any disqualifying reason.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds that: The employer is a temporary employment service. The claimant performed services from October 8, 2007, through December 18, 2009. She signed a document on October 1, 2007, indicating that she was to contact the employer within three days following the completion of an assignment to request placement in a new assignment. The claimant was given a copy of the document which was not part of the contract for hire. The claimant completed her last assignment on December 18, 2009, but sought reassignment from the employer. The employer told the claimant there was no part-time work available. The claimant needed part-time work because she is a full-time student.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow the administrative law judge concludes the claimant was not separated from the employer for any disqualifying reason.

Iowa Code section 96.5-1-j provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department, but the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

j. The individual is a temporary employee of a temporary employment firm who notifies the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment and who seeks reassignment. Failure of the individual to notify the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment within three working days of the completion of each employment assignment under a contract of hire shall be deemed a voluntary quit unless the individual was not advised in writing of the duty to notify the temporary employment firm upon completion of an employment assignment or the individual had good cause for not contacting the temporary employment firm within three working days and notified the firm at the first reasonable opportunity thereafter.

To show that the employee was advised in writing of the notification requirement of this paragraph, the temporary employment firm shall advise the temporary employee by requiring the temporary employee, at the time of employment with the temporary employment firm, to read and sign a document that provides a clear and concise explanation of the notification requirement and the consequences of a failure to notify. The document shall be separate from any contract of employment and a copy of the signed document shall be provided to the temporary employee.

For the purposes of this paragraph:

(1) "Temporary employee" means an individual who is employed by a temporary employment firm to provide services to clients to supplement their work force during absences, seasonal workloads, temporary skill or labor market shortages, and for special assignments and projects.

(2) "Temporary employment firm" means a person engaged in the business of employing temporary employees.

The claimant did request reassignment and has, therefore, satisfied the requirements of Iowa Code section 96.5-1-j. Benefits are allowed.

The issue of whether the claimant is able and available for work due to her status as a full-time student, is remanded for determination.

DECISION:

The representative's May 10, 2010 decision (reference 01) is affirmed. The claimant was separated from the employer for good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are allowed. The issue of whether the claimant is able and available for work due to her status as a full-time student, is remanded for determination.
