APPEAL NO. 23A-UI-01133-PT-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

INNKEEPER HOSPITALITY SERVICES
Employer

OC: 01/08/23
Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6-2 – Timeliness of Protest

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer appealed the representative's decision dated January 30, 2023, (reference 06) that concluded it failed to file a timely protest regarding the claimant's separation of employment on or before January 23, 2023, and no disqualification of unemployment insurance benefits was imposed. After due notice, a hearing was scheduled for and held on February 21, 2023. Employer participated through Human Resources Director Amanda DeBacker. Claimant failed to respond to the hearing notice and did not participate. Department's Exhibit D-1 was admitted into evidence. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

The issue in this matter is whether the employer's protest is timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having considered all of the evidence in the record, finds that: Employer owns and operates two Iowa businesses, one is Sioux City, Iowa, and the other in Davenport, Iowa. While the businesses are owned by the same employer, the businesses are managed independently. When employer set up its company ID with the State, employer listed the Davenport address as its business mailing address.

Claimant previously worked for employer's business in Sioux City, Iowa. On January 13, 2023, claimant's notice of claim was mailed to employer's address of record in Davenport, Iowa, and was received within ten days. The notice of claim contained a warning that employer's statement of protest must be postmarked or faxed by January 23, 2023. On January 24, 2023, an employee at the Davenport property emailed a copy of the notice of claim to the Sioux City property's Human Resources Director, Amanda DeBacker. DeBacker completed the employer's statement of protest and mailed the protest later that day, January 24, 2023.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark on the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

Another portion of this same Code section dealing with timeliness of an appeal from a representative's decision states that such an appeal must be filed within ten days after notification of that decision was mailed. In addressing an issue of timeliness of an appeal under that portion of this Code section, the Iowa Supreme Court held that this statute prescribing the time for notice of appeal clearly limits the time to do so, and that compliance with the appeal notice provision is mandatory and jurisdictional. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979). The administrative law judge considers the reasoning and holding of that court in that decision to be controlling on this portion of that same Iowa Code section which deals with a time limit in which to file a protest after notification of the filing of the claim has been mailed.

Although the notice of claim was sent to employer's Davenport business, the Davenport address was employer's correct mailing address of record. Moreover, employer received the notice of claim prior to the January 23, 2023, due date, but did not email the notice of claim to the Sioux City property until after the due date. Under these circumstances, I conclude the employer has not shown good cause for not complying with the jurisdictional time limit. Employer's delay is not attributable to the agency nor to the United States Postal Service. Therefore, employer's protest is untimely. The administrative law judge is without jurisdiction to entertain any protest regarding the separation from employment.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated January 30, 2023 (reference 06), is affirmed. The employer has failed to file a timely protest, and the decision of the representative shall stand and remain in full force and effect.
