OC: 04/16/17
Claimant: Appellant (6)

Iowa Code §96.3(7) – Overpayment of Benefits
Iowa Code Ch. 17A – Iowa Administrative Procedure Act
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.19(3) – Claims Bureau Subsequent Action

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant/appellant filed an appeal from the unemployment insurance decision dated May 26, 2017, reference 04, that he was overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $447.00 for one week from April 23, 2017 to May 6, 2017. Before a hearing was held, Iowa Workforce Development issued a favorable decision to the claimant, dated June 27, 2017, reference 07, stating that claimant's overpayment amount was reduced to $0.00. This decision made the issue on appeal moot. Therefore, no testimony or additional evidence was necessary. No hearing was held.

ISSUES:

Should the most recent unemployment insurance decision be affirmed?
Should the appeal be dismissed as moot?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

These findings of fact are based on the pertinent agency documents relating to this claimant and his appeal. An unemployment insurance decision dated May 26, 2017, reference 04, determined that the claimant was overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $447.00. The claimant appealed this decision. Before a hearing was held, Iowa Workforce Development issued a favorable decision to the claimant, dated June 27, 2017, reference 07, stating that he was not overpaid unemployment insurance benefits. This decision resolved the only issue on appeal in the claimant's favor, making the appeal moot.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Generally, courts and administrative tribunals do not decide issues when the underlying controversy is moot. Rhiner v. State, 703 N.W.2d 174, 176 (Iowa 2005). "A case is moot if it no longer presents a justiciable controversy because the issues involved are academic or nonexistent." Iowa Bankers Ass'n v. Iowa Credit Union Dep't, 335 N.W.2d 439, 442 (Iowa 1983)

The decision appealed was amended in favor of the appellant, making this appeal moot. The appeal of the original representative's decision dated May 26, 2017, reference 04, is dismissed as moot. The most recent decision, dated June 27, 2017, reference 07, is affirmed.

DECISION:

The appeal of the unemployment insurance decision dated May 26, 2017, reference 04, is dismissed as moot. The decision issued on June 27, 2017, reference 07, is affirmed.
