APPEAL NO. 23A-UI-08909-DG-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

DEERE & COMPANY
Employer

OC: 09/18/22
Claimant: Respondent (2)

Iowa Code § 96.5-1 – Voluntary Quit
Iowa Code § 96.3(7) – Recovery of Benefit Overpayment
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.10 – Employer/Representative Participation Fact-finding Interview

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Employer filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated September 8, 2023, reference 05, which held claimant eligible for unemployment insurance benefits. After due notice, a hearing was scheduled for and held on October 4, 2023. Claimant participated. Employer participated by Hanna Louh, Labor Relations Representative. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Whether claimant quit for good cause attributable to employer?
Has the claimant been overpaid any unemployment insurance benefits, and if so, can the repayment of those benefits to the agency be waived?
Can any charges to the employer's account be waived?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds: Claimant last worked for employer on June 26, 2023. Claimant left the employment on June 29, 2023 after she did not call into work or show up for work for three consecutive scheduled days of work.

Claimant began working for employer as a full-time assembler on September 13, 2021. Claimant was given access to employer's written rules and policies, and she received on the job training at the time of hire.

Claimant became very dissatisfied with her employment beginning in June, 2023. Claimant received a 30 day suspension when she was late for work, and she did not believe that was appropriate. On or about June 26, 2023 a co-worker told claimant that he had come into work late because he had been drinking. Claimant t became upset because it seemed unfair that she had recently been suspended for being late and a co-worker showed up late, and it seemed as if nothing had happened to him.

Claimant decided that she would stop going into work on August 27, 2023. She did not call into work or show up for work for three consecutive scheduled days of work beginning on that date in violation of employer's written three day no-call/no-show policy.

The administrative record reflects that claimant has received unemployment benefits in the amount of $0.00, since filing for a claim for benefits after her separation. The administrative record also establishes that the employer did not participate in the fact-finding interview.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The administrative law judge holds that the evidence has failed to establish that claimant voluntarily quit for good cause attributable to employer when claimant terminated the employment relationship by not calling into work or showing up at work for three consecutive days of scheduled work in violation of the employer's written policy. .

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

An employer is entitled to expect its employees to report to work as scheduled or to be notified when and why the employee is unable to report to work. Inasmuch as the claimant failed to report for work or notify the employer for three consecutive workdays in violation of the employer policy, the claimant is considered to have voluntarily left employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits must be denied.

Because no benefits were paid to claimant, the issues of overpayment, repayment and chargeability are moot.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated September 8, 2023, reference 05, is reversed. Unemployment insurance benefits shall be withheld until claimant has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times claimant's weekly benefit amount, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.
