Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.3-7 - Recovery of Benefit Overpayment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Glen Weber (claimant) appealed an unemployment insurance decision dated May 14, 2013, reference 03, which held that he was overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $981.00 as a result of a disqualification decision. After a hearing notice was mailed to the party's last-known address of record, a telephone hearing was held on June 26, 2013. The claimant participated in the hearing.

ISSUE:

The issue is whether the claimant was overpaid $981.00 in unemployment insurance benefits for the nine-week period ending May 4, 2013.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds that: A fact-finding decision issued on April 1, 2013 (reference 02) allowed benefits. The claimant and the employer participated in the fact-finding interview. The employer appealed and an appeal hearing was held on May 2, 2013. Both the claimant and the employer participated in the appeal hearing. The administrative law judge reversed the fact-finder's decision and denied benefits, which resulted in an overpayment of benefits.

The claimant appealed the administrative law judge's decision to the Employment Appeal Board, who has not issued a decision as of the date of this hearing.

The claimant did receive unemployment insurance benefits for the nine-week period ending May 4, 2013.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.3-7, as amended in 2008, provides:

7. Recovery of overpayment of benefits.

a. If an individual receives benefits for which the individual is subsequently determined to be ineligible, even though the individual acts in good faith and is not otherwise at fault, the benefits shall be recovered. The department in its discretion may recover the overpayment of benefits either by having a sum equal to the overpayment deducted from any future benefits payable to the individual or by having the individual pay to the department a sum equal to the overpayment.

b. (1) If the department determines that an overpayment has been made, the charge for the overpayment against the employer's account shall be removed and the account shall be credited with an amount equal to the overpayment from the unemployment compensation trust fund and this credit shall include both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5. However, provided the benefits were not received as the result of fraud or willful misrepresentation by the individual, benefits shall not be recovered from an individual if the employer did not participate in the initial determination to award benefits pursuant to section 96.6, subsection 2, and an overpayment occurred because of a subsequent reversal on appeal regarding the issue of the individual's separation from employment. The employer shall not be charged with the benefits.

(2) An accounting firm, agent, unemployment insurance accounting firm, or other entity that represents an employer in unemployment claim matters and demonstrates a continuous pattern of failing to participate in the initial determinations to award benefits, as determined and defined by rule by the department, shall be denied permission by the department to represent any employers in unemployment insurance matters. This subparagraph does not apply to attorneys or counselors admitted to practice in the courts of this state pursuant to section 602.10101.

The administrative law judge concludes that the claimant has been overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $981.00 pursuant to Iowa Code § 96.3-7 unless the disqualification decision is reversed by the Employment Appeal Board.

DECISION:

The unemployment insurance decision dated May 14, 2013, reference 03, is affirmed. The claimant was overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $981.00.
