(Decision Dated & Mailed)

871 IAC 24.2(1)g – Retroactive Weekly Claim

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed a timely appeal from the January 23, 2004, reference 05, decision that denied the request for retroactive benefits for the period from July 27, 2003 through August 23, 2003. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held on February 23, 2004. Claimant did participate.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant filed an original claim for benefits on July 27, 2003. Claimant worked in self-employment on his parents' house during the four weeks ending August 23, 2003.

Claimant continued to search for work during those four weeks but did not call in to file his weekly claims.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant's request for retroactive benefits is denied.

871 IAC 24.2(1)g provides:

(g) No continued claim for benefits shall be allowed until the individual claiming benefits has completed a voice response continued claim or claimed benefits as otherwise directed by the department. The weekly voice response continued claim shall be transmitted not earlier than noon of the Saturday of the weekly reporting period and, unless reasonable cause can be shown for the delay, not later than close of business on the Friday following the weekly reporting period.

An individual claiming benefits using the weekly voice continued claim system shall personally answer and record such claim on the system unless the individual is disabled and has received prior approval from the department.

Failure to call in claims is not considered a good cause reason for having failed to file a weekly claim from July 27 to August 23, 2003. The claim for retroactive benefits is denied.

DECISION:

The January 23, 2004, reference 05, decision is affirmed. The claimant's request for retroactive benefits is denied for the four weeks ending August 23, 2003.
