871 IAC 24.9 - Redetermination

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

An appeal was filed from an unemployment insurance decision dated July 16, 2013, reference 01. A hearing was scheduled for September 5, 2013. Prior to the hearing being held, the Agency redetermined the case in the claimant's favor on the issue that he appealed, which eliminates the need for a hearing.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The Agency had determined the claimant lacked qualifying wages. The Agency redetermined the case in the claimant's favor on the issue that he appealed.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

871 IAC 24.9 permits the Department to redetermine an issue based on new information. The Agency redetermined the case in the claimant's favor on the issue that he appealed, which eliminates the need for a hearing.

DECISION:

The unemployment insurance decision dated July 16, 2013, reference 01, is modified. The Agency redetermined the case in the claimant's favor on the issue that he appealed. The claimant has been determined monetarily eligible for benefits.
