ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

QUAKER MANUFACTURING LLC

OC: 07/03/22
Claimant: Appellant (4)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able to and Available for Work
Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) – Total, Partial, Temporary Unemployment
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(2) – Same Base Period Employment
Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timely Appeal

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Benjamin M. Gonzalez, the claimant/appellant, filed an appeal from the Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) August 31, 2022 (reference 02) unemployment insurance (UI) decision that denied REGULAR (state) UI benefits as of July 3, 2022 because IWD records indicated that Mr. Gonzalez was still employed in his job for the same hours and pay as in his original contract of hire. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on October 13, 2022. Appeals 22A-UI-17158-DZ-T, and 22A-UI-17159-DZ-T were heard together and formed one hearing record. Mr. Gonzalez participated personally. The employer did not participate in the hearing. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Is Mr. Gonzalez's appeal filed on time?
Is Mr. Gonzalez able to and available for work?
Is Mr. Maletta totally, partially, or temporarily unemployed?
If so, is the employer's account subject to charge?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: IWD mailed the UI decision to Mr. Gonzalez at the correct address on August 31, 2022. The UI decision states that it becomes final unless an appeal is postmarked or received by the IWD Appeals Section by September 10, 2022. If the date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the appeal period is extended to the next working day. September 10, 2022 was a Saturday; therefore, the deadline was extended to Monday, September 12, 2022. Mr. Gonzalez received the decision on, or about, September 14, 2022. Mr. Gonzalez filed an appeal on September 15, 2022. The appeal was received on September 15, 2022.

The administrative law judge further finds: Mr. Gonzalez began working for the employer on April 25, 2022. He works as a full-time supply trucker. The week of July 3-9, 2022, the employer closed its facility and did not have work available for Mr. Gonzalez. Mr. Gonzalez returned to work the following week in the same job and at the same pay.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes Mr. Gonzalez's appeal of the August 31, 2022 (reference 02) UI decision was filed on time.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: “[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.”

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

2. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:
 - (2) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.
 - (b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.
 - (c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982).

Mr. Gonzalez received the August 31, 2022 (reference 02) UI decision after the deadline and, therefore, could not have filed an appeal by the appeal deadline. The notice provision of the decision was invalid. Mr. Gonzalez filed his appeal one day after he received the decision. Mr. Gonzalez's appeal was filed on time.

The administrative law judge further concludes:

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) provides:

"Total and partial unemployment".

a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.

b. An individual shall be deemed partially unemployed in any week in which either of the following apply:

(1) While employed at the individual's then regular job, the individual works less than the regular full-time week and in which the individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

(2) The individual, having been separated from the individual's regular job, earns at odd jobs less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

c. An individual shall be deemed temporarily unemployed if for a period, verified by the department, not to exceed four consecutive weeks, the individual is unemployed due to a plant shutdown, vacation, inventory, lack of work or emergency from the individual's regular job or trade in which the individual worked full-time and will again work full-time, if the individual's employment, although temporarily suspended, has not been terminated.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(26) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(26) Where a claimant is still employed in a part-time job at the same hours and wages as contemplated in the original contract for hire and is not working on a reduced workweek basis different from the contract for hire, such claimant cannot be considered partially unemployed.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(2)(a) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (2) The amount of regular benefits plus fifty percent of the amount of extended benefits paid to an eligible individual shall be charged against the account of the employers in the base period in the inverse chronological order in which the employment of the individual occurred.

(a) However, if the individual to whom the benefits are paid is in the employ of a base period employer at the time the individual is receiving the benefits, and the individual is receiving the same employment from the employer that the individual received during the individual's base period, benefits paid to the individual shall not be charged against the account of the employer. This provision applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding subparagraph (3) and section 96.8, subsection 5.

In this case, Mr. Gonzalez is temporarily unemployed the week of July 3-9, 2022. The employer closed its facility that week, so Mr. Gonzalez did not work, and he earned no wages that week. Benefits are allowed for the week of July 3-9, 2022, as long as Mr. Gonzalez is otherwise eligible. Since this employer did not offer Mr. Gonzalez the same wages and hours during that week as in his base period contemplated at hire, the employer's account should be charged.

DECISION:

Mr. Gonzalez's appeal of the August 31, 2022 (reference 02) UI decision is filed on time. The August 31, 2022 (reference 02) UI decision is MODIFIED IN FAVOR OF THE APPELLANT, Mr. Gonzalez. Mr. Gonzalez is temporarily unemployed the week of July 3-9, 2022. Benefits are allowed for that week, provided Mr. Gonzalez is otherwise eligible. This employer's account shall be charged for that week.
