Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) – Default Decision
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.14(7) – Dismissal of Appeal on Default

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Ashley Philips filed a timely appeal from the October 5, 2017, reference 01, decision that disqualified her for benefits and that relieved the employer's account of liability for benefits, based on the claims deputy's conclusion that Ms. Philips was discharged on September 19, 2017 for violation of a known company rule. A notice of hearing was mailed to the parties' last-known addresses of record for a telephone hearing to be held at 3:00 p.m. on November 8, 2017. The employer registered a telephone number for the hearing and was available through Mary Eggenburg, Megan Yilek and Ray Hass. The claimant/appellant registered a telephone number for the hearing, but was not available at that number at the time of the hearing. Based upon the claimant/appellant's failure to participate in the hearing and the law, the administrative law judge enters the following findings of fact, reasoning and conclusions of law and decision.

ISSUE:

Should the appeal be dismissed based upon the claimant/appellant not participating in the hearing?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Claimant Ashley Philips is the appellant in this matter. Ms. Philips was properly notified of the appeal hearing set for 3:00 p.m. on November 8, 2017 through the hearing notice that was mailed to her last-known address of record on October 26, 2017. However, at the time of the hearing, Ms. Philips was not available at the number she registered for the hearing. The administrative law judge made two attempts to reach Ms. Philips at the scheduled start of the hearing. On each attempt, Ms. Philips did not answer and the administrative law judge was eventually routed to a message that stated Ms. Philips' voice mail box was full and could not receive a message. Prior to closing the record and dismissing the employer from the hearing at 3:15 p.m., the administrative law judge made a third attempt at 3:13-3:14 p.m. to reach Ms. Philips at the number she had registered for the hearing. Again, Ms. Philips did not answer and her voicemail box was full. The appeal hearing in this matter was initially set for October 25, 2017, but was rescheduled by agreement of the parties to 3:00 p.m. on November 8, 2017. The October 25, 2017 was necessitated by Ms. Philips' assertion that she had not received sufficient notice of the hearing and her assertion of her right to 10 days' notice of the hearing. On October 25, 2017, Ms. Philips acknowledged that she had received the hearing notice for the October 25 proceeding on October 18, 2017.

The October 5, 2017, reference 01, decision disqualified Ms. Philips for benefits and relieved the employer's account of liability for benefits, based on the claims deputy's conclusion that Ms. Philips was discharged on September 19, 2017 for violation of a known company rule.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The Iowa Administrative Procedures Act at Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) provides in pertinent part:

If a party fails to appear or participate in a contested case proceeding after proper service of notice, the presiding officer may, if no adjournment is granted, enter a default decision or proceed with the hearing and make a decision in the absence of the party. ... If a decision is rendered against a party who failed to appear for the hearing and the presiding officer is timely requested by that party to vacate the decision for good cause, the time for initiating a further appeal is stayed pending a determination by the presiding officer to grant or deny the request. If adequate reasons are provided showing good cause for the party's failure to appear, the presiding officer shall vacate the decision and, after proper service of notice, conduct another evidentiary hearing. If adequate reasons are not provided showing good cause for the party's failure to appear, the presiding officer shall deny the motion to vacate.

Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-26.14(7) provides:

(7) If a party has not responded to a notice of telephone hearing by providing the appeals bureau with the names and telephone numbers of the persons who are participating in the hearing by the scheduled starting time of the hearing or is not available at the telephone number provided, the presiding officer may proceed with the hearing. If the appealing party fails to provide a telephone number or is unavailable for the hearing, the presiding officer may decide the appealing party is in default and dismiss the appeal as provide in Iowa Code section 17A.12(3). The record may be reopened if the absent party makes a request to reopen the hearing in writing under subrule 26.8(3) and shows good cause for reopening the hearing.

a. If an absent party responds to the hearing notice while the hearing is in progress, the presiding officer shall pause to admit the party, summarize the hearing to that point, administer the oath, and resume the hearing.

b. If a party responds to the notice of hearing after the record has been closed and any party which has participated is no longer on the telephone line, the presiding officer shall not take the evidence of the late party.

c. Failure to read or follow the instructions on the notice of hearing shall not constitute good cause for reopening the record.

Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-26.8(4) provides:

(4) A request to reopen a record or vacate a decision must be made in writing. If necessary, the presiding officer may hear, ex parte, additional information regarding the request for reopening. The granting or denial of such a request may be used as grounds for appeal to the employment appeal board of the department of inspections and appeals upon the issuance of the presiding officer's final decision in the case.

The claimant/appellant appealed the representative's decision but failed to participate in the hearing. The claimant/appellant has therefore defaulted on her appeal pursuant to Iowa Code §17A.12(3) and Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.14(7), and the representative's decision remains in force and effect.

If the claimant/appellant disagrees with this decision, pursuant to the rule, the claimant/appellant must make a written request to the administrative law judge that the hearing be reopened within 15 days after the mailing date of this decision. The written request should be mailed to the administrative law judge at the address listed at the end of this decision and must explain the good cause that prevented the claimant/appellant from participating in the hearing at its scheduled time.

DECISION:

The October 5, 2017, reference 01, decision is affirmed. The decision that disqualified the claimant for benefits and that relieved the employer of liability for benefits, based on the claims deputy's conclusion that the claimant was discharged on September 19, 2017 for violation of a known company rule, remains in effect.
