APPEAL 23A-UI-04767-PT-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

CASEY'S MARKETING COMPANY

Employer

OC: 04/09/23

Claimant: Respondent (1R)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able to and Available for Work
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(2) – Same Base Period Employment
Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) – Total and Partial Unemployment
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.23(26) – Same Hours and Wages

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer filed an appeal from the April 28, 2023, (reference 06) unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits finding claimant was still employed part-time with the same employer in the same was as before filing his claim and that no charges would be made against the employer's account for benefits paid. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on June 8, 2023. Claimant participated personally. The employer participated through District Manager Michelle Benton. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Is the claimant totally, partially or temporarily unemployed?
Is the claimant able to and available for work?
Is the claimant still employed at the same hours and wages?
Is the employer's account subject to charge?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

Claimant began part-time employment with Casey's Marketing Company on November 15, 2022. Claimant works between twenty and thirty hour per week and earns $12.40 per hour. Claimant's employment with Casey's Marketing Company is supplemental to claimant's full-time employment with Sterilite Corporation. Claimant filed an initial claim for benefits effective April 9, 2023, after his employment with Sterilite Corporation ended on April 10, 2023. Since filing his initial claim, claimant continued to work his regular hours and earn his regular wages from Casey's Marketing Company until May 7, 2023, when claimant injured himself in a workplace accident. Claimant has not yet seen a doctor about his injury. Claimant is still employed with Casey's Marketing Company, but he has accepted no hours and has performed no work since May 7, 2023. Claimant's weekly benefit amount is $551.00.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code section 96.1A(37) provides:

"Total and partial unemployment".

a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.

b. An individual shall be deemed partially unemployed in any week in which either of the following apply:

(1) While employed at the individual's then regular job, the individual works less than the regular full-time week and in which the individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

(2) The individual, having been separated from the individual's regular job, earns at odd jobs less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

c. An individual shall be deemed temporarily unemployed if for a period, verified by the department, not to exceed four consecutive weeks, the individual is unemployed due to a plant shutdown, vacation, inventory, lack of work or emergency from the individual's regular job or trade in which the individual worked full-time and will again work full-time, if the individual's employment, although temporarily suspended, has not been terminated.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-23.43(4)a provides in part:

(4) Supplemental employment.

a. An individual, who has been separated with cause attributable to the regular employer and who remains in the employ of the individual's part-time, base period employer, continues to be eligible for benefits as long as the individual is receiving the same employment from the part-time employer that the individual received during the base period. The part-time employer's account, including the reimbursable employer's account, may be relieved of benefit charges....

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.23(26) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(26) Where a claimant is still employed in a part-time job at the same hours and wages as contemplated in the original contract for hire and is not working on a reduced workweek basis different from the contract for hire, such claimant cannot be considered partially unemployed.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(2) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (2) The amount of regular benefits plus fifty percent of the amount of extended benefits paid to an eligible individual shall be charged against the account of the employers in the base period in the inverse chronological order in which the employment of the individual occurred.

(a) However, if the individual to whom the benefits are paid is in the employ of a base period employer at the time the individual is receiving the benefits, and the individual is receiving the same employment from the employer that the individual received during the individual's base period, benefits paid to the individual shall not be charged against the account of the employer. This provision applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding subparagraph (3) and section 96.8, subsection 5.

(b) An employer's account shall not be charged with benefits paid to an individual who left the work of the employer voluntarily without good cause attributable to the employer or to an individual who was discharged for misconduct in connection with the individual's employment, or to an individual who failed without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work or to accept suitable work with that employer, but shall be charged to the unemployment compensation fund. This paragraph applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

(c) The amount of benefits paid to an individual, which is solely due to wage credits considered to be in an individual's base period due to the exclusion and substitution of calendar quarters from the individual's base period under section 96.23, shall be charged against the account of the employer responsible for paying the workers' compensation benefits for temporary total disability or during a healing period under section 85.33, section 85.34, subsection 1, or section 85A.17, or responsible for paying indemnity insurance benefits.

Casey's Marketing Company is claimant's supplemental part-time employer; claimant had primary full-time employment from Sterilite Corporation, which ended April 10, 2023. Since filing an initial claim effective April 9, 2023, claimant received the same employment from Casey's Marketing Company that he received during his base period, until claimant stopped accepting hours due to an injury he suffered on May 7, 2023. Therefore, claimant is eligible for benefits subject to reporting wages earned and provided claimant is otherwise eligible for benefits.

Inasmuch as the employer is offering the same wage and hours as contemplated at hire, its account may be relieved of charges.

DECISION:

The April 28, 2023, (reference 06) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. Claimant is receiving the same employment with this supplemental part-time employer that claimant received during the base period. Benefits are allowed subject to claimant reporting all wages earned and provided claimant is otherwise eligible. The employer's account may be relieved of charges.

REMAND:

The issue of whether claimant is able to and available for work as of May 7, 2023, is remanded to the Iowa Workforce Development Benefits Bureau for an investigation and determination.
