APPEAL 22A-UI-17825-JD-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

COSTCO WHOLESALE CORPORATION

Employer

OC: 08/28/22

Claimant: Respondent (2)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(4) – VQ – Three no call-no show absences

Iowa Code § 96.3(7) – Recovery of Benefit Overpayment

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.10 – Employer/Rep. Participation in Fact-finding Interview

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On October 10, 2022, Costco Wholesale Corporation (employer/appellant) filed an appeal from the September 25, 2022, reference 04, unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits. A telephone hearing was held on November 1, 2022, pursuant to due notice. The claimant, Gabrielle Hoskins, did not participate. The employer participated through hearing representative Frankie Patterson and witnesses Taynin Harvey, Assistant General Manager and David Pierce, General Manager. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Whether claimant's separation was a voluntarily quit without good cause attributable to employer.

Whether claimant was overpaid benefits.

Whether claimant should repay those benefits and/or whether employer should be charged based upon its participation in the fact-finding interview.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant began working for employer on November 3, 2021. Claimant last worked as a part-time morning merchandise stocker. Claimant was separated from employment on November 27, 2021, after she no called/no showed for five scheduled shifts. The claimant's last day physically worked for the employer was November 19, 2021. The claimant was scheduled to work on November 21, 22, 23, 24, and 26, 2021, but failed to show up for her shifts or report her unscheduled absences. The employer has not heard from the claimant since November 19, 2021.

The administrative record reflects that claimant has filed for benefits for the two-week period ending September 10, 2022, however the claimant has a disqualifying separation in her base period so no benefits have been paid to the claimant during this claim year. Employer did participate in the fact-finding interview.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's separation from the employment was without good cause attributable to the employer.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

A voluntary quitting means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer and requires an intention to terminate the employment. Wills v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 447 N.W. 2d 137, 138 (Iowa 1989). A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention. Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (Iowa 1980); Peck v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 492 N.W.2d 438 (Iowa Ct. App. 1992). Claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). "Good cause" for leaving employment must be that which is reasonable to the average person, not the overly sensitive individual or the claimant in particular. Uniweld Products v. Indus. Relations Comm'n, 277 So.2d 827 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1973). Where a claim gives numerous reasons for leaving employment the agency is required to consider all stated reasons which might combine to give the claimant good cause to quit in determining any of those reasons constitute good cause attributable to the employer. Taylor v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 362 N.W.2d 534 (Iowa 1985).

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(4) in pertinent provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

(4) The claimant was absent for three days without giving notice to employer in violation of company rule.

It is the duty of the administrative law judge, as the trier of fact, to determine the credibility of witnesses, weigh the evidence and decide the facts in issue. Arndt v. City of LeClaire, 728 N.W.2d 389, 394-395 (Iowa 2007). The administrative law judge may believe all, part or none of any witness's testimony. State v. Holtz, 548 N.W.2d 162, 163 (Iowa App. 1996). In assessing the credibility of witnesses, the administrative law judge should consider the evidence using his or her own observations, common sense and experience. Id. In determining the facts, and deciding what testimony to believe, the fact finder may consider the following factors: whether the testimony is reasonable and consistent with other evidence you believe; whether a witness has made inconsistent statements; the witness's appearance, conduct, age, intelligence, memory and knowledge of the facts; and the witness's interest in the trial, their motive, candor, bias and prejudice. Id.

Claimant voluntarily quit her employment with when she failed to report to work and did not notify employer for three consecutive shifts in violation of company rule. Claimant has had no contact with the employer since November 19, 2021. Benefits are denied.

Because no benefits were paid to claimant, the issues of overpayment, repayment and chargeability are moot.

DECISION:

The September 25, 2022, (reference04) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. Claimant voluntarily left the employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are denied until claimant has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times her weekly benefit amount, provided she is otherwise eligible.
