OC: 06/28/20
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code §96.6(2) – Timely Appeal
PL116-136, Sec. 2107 – Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC)

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Robert J Becher, the claimant/appellant, filed an appeal from the September 29, 2021, (reference 03) unemployment insurance (UI) decision that concluded he was overpaid Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC) benefits in the gross amount of $6,300.00. Mr. Becher was properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held December 20, 2021. Mr. Becher participated and testified. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Is Mr. Becher's appeal filed on time?
Has Mr. Becher been overpaid FPUC benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The Unemployment Insurance Decision was mailed to Mr. Becher at the correct address on September 29, 2021. The decision states that it becomes final unless an appeal is postmarked or received by Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) Appeals Section by October 9, 2021. If the date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the appeal period is extended to the next working day. October 9, 2021 was a Saturday; therefore, the deadline was extended to Monday, October 11, 2021.

Mr. Becher received the decision in the mail on October 5, 2021. He had previously contacted Illinois about his eligibility for REGULAR UI in Illinois, and he was waiting for a response. Illinois got back to Mr. Becher on October 14, 2021 and told him that he is not monetarily eligible for REGULAR UI in Illinois. Mr. Becher filed an appeal online on October 14, 2021.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes Mr. Becher's appeal of the reference 03 decision was not filed on time.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: “[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.”

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982).

Mr. Becher received the decision in the mail before the deadline and, therefore, could have filed an appeal prior to the appeal deadline. The notice provision of the decision was valid. Mr. Becher's delay in filing his appeal was not due to an error or misinformation from the Department or due to delay or other action of the United States Postal Service. No other good cause reason has been established for the delay in filing his appeal before the deadline. Mr. Becher's appeal was not filed on time and the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction (authority) to decide the other issue in this matter.

DECISION:

Mr. Becher's appeal was not filed on time. The September 29, 2021 (reference 03) decision finding Mr. Becher was overpaid FPUC benefits is affirmed.
