UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE APPEALS BUREAU

DEBRA K PERKINS
Claimant

APPEAL 23A-UI-10733-AR-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

CAMSO MANUFACTURING USA LTD
Employer

OC: 12/25/22
Claimant: Appellant (1R)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal
Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On November 15, 2023, the claimant filed an appeal from the February 16, 2023, (reference 04) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based on the determination that claimant voluntarily quit employment without a showing of good cause. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on December 5, 2023. Claimant, Debra K. Perkins, participated. Employer, Camso Manufacturing USA, Ltd., participated through HR Manager Renae Bettcher. Employer's Exhibits A through D were admitted. Department's Exhibit D-1 was admitted. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Is the claimant's appeal timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: A disqualification decision was mailed to claimant's last known address of record on February 16, 2023. She did receive the decision within ten days, on approximately February 20, 2023. The decision contained a warning that an appeal must be postmarked or received by the Appeals Bureau by February 26, 2023. The appeal was not filed until November 15, 2023, which is after the date noticed on the disqualification decision. Claimant did not appeal the decision because she had already begun a new job when she received the denial decision.

The administrative record indicates that claimant filed a claim for unemployment benefits with an effective date of December 25, 2022. She filed one weekly continuing claim, and reported wages in excess of her weekly benefit amount—which is $508.00—plus $15.00 for the benefit week ending January 14, 2023. Thereafter, she did not file weekly continuing claims again until the week ending October 21, 2023. Between the date of her original claim and the time at which she began filing weekly claims in October 2023, the administrative record indicates she earned at least $5,080.00 in insured wages. This matter will be remanded to the Benefits Bureau for review and a determination regarding whether and when claimant requalified for benefits during the claim year.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant's appeal is untimely.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: “[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.”

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982).

Here, the claimant received the decision in the mail and, therefore, had an opportunity to file an appeal prior to the appeal deadline. Claimant's delay was not due to an error or misinformation from the Department or due to delay or other action of the United States Postal Service. No other good cause reason has been established for the delay. Claimant's appeal was not filed on time and the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to decide the other issue in this matter.

However, the issue of whether and/or when claimant requalified for benefits will be remanded to the Benefits Bureau for review and a determination.

DECISION:

The February 16, 2023, (reference 04) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. The appeal in this case was not timely, and the decision of the representative remains in effect.

REMAND:

The issue of whether and when claimant requalified for benefits prior to resuming filing her weekly continuing claims is remanded to the Benefits Bureau of Iowa Workforce Development for investigation and determination.
