ALAN R KOSLOW
Claimant

APPEAL 21A-UI-05158-JC-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

JOHNSTON COMMUNITY SCHOOL DIST
Employer

OC: 04/05/20
Claimant: Appellant (6)

Iowa Code § 96.4(5) – Reasonable Assurance
Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) – Default Decision
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.14(7) – Dismissal of Appeal on Default

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant/appellant, Alan R. Koslow, filed an appeal from February 10, 2021 (reference 06) Iowa Workforce Development (“IWD”) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits effective May 31, 2020. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. The hearing was scheduled for April 20, 2021, at 8:10 a.m.

The appellant registered a phone number with the Appeals Bureau as directed on the hearing notice, but was not available when called for the hearing. A voicemail was provided, directing the appellant to call the Appeals Bureau immediately to participate. A grace period was extended to allow the appellant to respond before the record was closed. No hearing was held.

ISSUE:

Should the appeal be dismissed based on the appellant's failure to appear and participate?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Iowa Workforce Development notified claimant of the hearing. The claimant did not respond when called at the time of the hearing. Claimant did not participate in the hearing or request a postponement. Claimant did not follow the instructions on the hearing notice. The hearing notice instruction specifically advises claimant of the date and time of the hearing. It also states:

The back page of the hearing notice provides further instruction and warning:

Failure to Participate or Register for Appeal Hearing

If you do not participate in the hearing, the judge may dismiss the appeal or issue a decision without considering your evidence. The Appeals Bureau does not have a phone number for this hearing unless you provide it to us by following the instructions on the other side of this page. If you do not follow those instructions, the judge will not call you for the hearing. 871 IAC 26.14(7).

The information quoted above also appears on the hearing notice in Spanish.

As a courtesy to the claimant, the administrative law judge left the record open for 15 minutes past the scheduled time of the hearing to give the claimant a reasonable amount of time to call the Appeals Bureau to participate. Claimant did not contact the Appeals Bureau during that time period.

The initial unemployment insurance decision denied benefits.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The Iowa Administrative Procedure Act at Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) provides that if a party fails to appear or participate in a hearing after proper service of notice, the judge may enter a default decision or proceed with the hearing and make a decision in the absence of the party.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.14(7) provides, in relevant part:

(7) If a party has not responded to a notice of telephone hearing by providing the appeals bureau with the names and telephone numbers of the persons who are participating in the hearing by the scheduled starting time of the hearing or is not available at the telephone number provided, the presiding officer may proceed with the hearing. If the appealing party fails to provide a telephone number or is unavailable for the hearing, the presiding officer may decide the appealing party is in default and dismiss the appeal as provide in Iowa Code section 17A.12(3).

In this case, claimant failed to be available when called by the administrative law judge for the scheduled hearing. Claimant is in default and the appeal is dismissed.

If the claimant disagrees with this decision, the claimant may appeal the decision directly to the Employment Appeal Board, whose address is listed at the top right caption.

DECISION:

The February 10 2021, (reference 06) unemployment insurance decision denying benefits remains in effect as the appellant is in default.
