RICHARD A ARMSTRONG
Claimant

APPEAL 24A-UI-03537-DZ-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

UNITED PARCEL SERVICE
Employer

OC: 03/21/21
Claimant: Appellant (6)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit
Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) – Default Decision

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Richard A. Armstrong, the claimant/appellant,¹ appealed the Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) June 8, 2021, (reference 02) unemployment insurance (UI) decision. IWD denied Mr. Armstrong REGULAR (state) UI benefits because IWD concluded he voluntarily quit working for this employer on February 16, 2021 for personal reasons and the employer did not cause his quitting. On April 9, 2024, the Iowa Department of Inspections, Appeals, and Licensing (DIAL), UI Appeals Bureau mailed a notice of hearing to Mr. Armstrong, Craig A. Long, Mr. Armstrong's non-attorney representative, and the employer at each of their last known addresses of record for a telephone hearing scheduled for April 24, 2024.

Mr. Armstrong did not call the toll-free number listed on the hearing notice at the time the hearing was scheduled to begin. Because Mr. Armstrong appealed but did not call in, the administrative law judge did not hold a hearing.

The administrative law judge concludes Mr. Armstrong is in default, the appeal is dismissed, and Mr. Armstrong is still not eligible for UI benefits based on how his job ended with this employer.

ISSUE:

Should the appeal be dismissed because Mr. Armstrong did not appear and participate in the appeal hearing?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The DIAL UI Appeals Bureau properly notified the parties of the scheduled hearing for this appeal. Mr. Armstrong did not call the toll-free number listed on the hearing notice at the time scheduled for this appeal hearing. He did not request a postponement of the hearing before the hearing date. He did not call in before the record was closed 15 minutes after the hearing was scheduled to begin. The administrative law judge did not hold a hearing because Mr. Armstrong did not appear.

¹ Claimant is the person who filed for UI benefits. Appellant is the person or employer who filed the appeal.

The hearing notice lists the hearing date as April 24, 2024, and the hearing time as 1:00 p.m. Iowa time. The hearing notice also advises parties:

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

YOU MUST CALL the toll-free number...at the time of the hearing. You may call up to 5 minutes before the hearing. You are not the organizer – Do NOT press 2.

The administrative law judge WILL NOT call you for the hearing, you MUST call into the number provided above to participate. Failure to participate in the hearing may result in the dismissal of your appeal. Failure to participate in the hearing may result in dismissal of your appeal.

The administrative law judge left the record open after the hearing start time to give Mr. Armstrong a reasonable opportunity to participate. Allowing additional time may prejudice the non-appealing party. Holding Mr. Armstrong in default for not appearing and participating during the grace period is reasonable considering the time allocated for each appeal hearing.

The UI decision concluded that Mr. Armstrong is not eligible for REGULAR (state) UI benefits based on how his job ended with this employer.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The Iowa Administrative Procedures Act at Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) provides, in relevant part:

If a party fails to appear or participate in a contested case proceeding after proper service of notice, the presiding officer may, if no adjournment is granted, enter a default decision or proceed with the hearing and make a decision in the absence of the party. ... If a decision is rendered against a party who failed to appear for the hearing and the presiding officer is timely requested by that party to vacate the decision for good cause, the time for initiating a further appeal is stayed pending a determination by the presiding officer to grant or deny the request. If adequate reasons are provided showing good cause for the party's failure to appear, the presiding officer shall vacate the decision and, after proper service of notice, conduct another evidentiary hearing. If adequate reasons are not provided showing good cause for the party's failure to appear, the presiding officer shall deny the motion to vacate.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 26.14(7) provides:

If a party has not responded to a notice of telephone hearing by providing the appeals bureau with the names and telephone numbers of the persons who are participating in the hearing by the scheduled starting time of the hearing or is not available at the telephone number provided, the presiding officer may proceed with the hearing. If the appealing party fails to provide a telephone number or is unavailable for the hearing, the presiding officer may decide the appealing party is in default and dismiss the appeal as provide in Iowa Code section 17A.12(3). The record may be reopened if the absent party makes a request in writing to reopen the hearing under subrule 26.8(3) and shows good cause for reopening the hearing.

- a. If an absent party responds to the hearing notice while the hearing is in progress, the presiding officer shall pause to admit the party, summarize the hearing to that point, administer the oath, and resume the hearing.
- b. If a party responds to the notice of hearing after the record has been closed and any party which has participated is no longer on the telephone line, the presiding officer shall not take the evidence of the late party.
- c. Failure to read or follow the instructions on the notice of hearing shall not constitute good cause for reopening the record.

Due process requires notice and an opportunity to be heard, both of which were provided to the parties. The appellant is responsible for going forward with the case in a prompt and thoughtful manner. The appellant must be present at the start of the hearing to avoid a default judgment.² The hearing notice instructs the parties to call the toll-free number listed on hearing notice at the time the hearing is scheduled to begin.

Mr. Armstrong did not call in for the hearing and is in default. The appeal is dismissed and the IWD UI decision remains in force and effect.

DECISION:

The June 8, 2021 (reference 02) UI decision denying Mr. Armstrong REGULAR (state) UI benefits remains in effect as he is in default and the appeal is DISMISSED.
