ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

WALGREEN CO
Employer

OC: 03/02/14
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Section 96.4-3 – Able and Available

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed a timely appeal from the March 28, 2014, reference 01, decision that denied benefits. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held by telephone conference call before Administrative Law Judge Julie Elder on July 2, 2014. The claimant participated in the hearing. Brett Burgett, Store Manager and Tom Kuiper, Employer Representative, participated in the hearing on behalf of the employer.

ISSUE:

The issue is whether the claimant is able and available for work and whether she is on a leave of absence.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant requested and was given a medical leave of absence due to illness from February 18 and March 24, 2014. Store Manager Brett Burgett called the claimant to notify her she was scheduled to work March 28, 2014, and the claimant told him her husband had been diagnosed with brain and lung cancer and she needed to be with him. On April 1, 2014, the claimant requested Family and Medical Leave paperwork. Her husband has been in Iowa City undergoing treatment for all but one day since that time. The employer will hold her job through February 12, 2015.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant is not able and available for work and did take a leave of absence.

Iowa Code § 96.4-3 provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph 1, or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(2)(1)(2) provides:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(2) Available for work. The availability requirement is satisfied when an individual is willing, able, and ready to accept suitable work which the individual does not have good cause to refuse, that is, the individual is genuinely attached to the labor market. Since, under unemployment insurance laws, it is the availability of an individual that is required to be tested, the labor market must be described in terms of the individual. A labor market for an individual means a market for the type of service which the individual offers in the geographical area in which the individual offers the service. Market in that sense does not mean that job vacancies must exist; the purpose of unemployment insurance is to compensate for lack of job vacancies. It means only that the type of services which an individual is offering is generally performed in the geographical area in which the individual is offering the services.

j. Leave of absence. A leave of absence negotiated with the consent of both parties, employer and employee, is deemed a period of voluntary unemployment for the employee-individual, and the individual is considered ineligible for benefits for the period.

(1) If at the end of a period or term of negotiated leave of absence the employer fails to reemploy the employee-individual, the individual is considered laid off and eligible for benefits.

(2) If the employee-individual fails to return at the end of the leave of absence and subsequently becomes unemployed the individual is considered as having voluntarily quit and therefore is ineligible for benefits.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(10) provides:

(10) The claimant requested and was granted a leave of absence, such period is deemed to be a period of voluntary unemployment and shall be considered ineligible for benefits for such period.

The claimant requested and was given a leave of absence to care for her husband who is unfortunately suffering from brain and lung cancer. In order to be eligible for unemployment insurance benefits the claimant must be able and available for work. Because, understandably, the claimant is caring for her husband, she is not able and available for work at this time. Accordingly, benefits must be denied.

DECISION:

The March 28, 2014, reference 01, decision is affirmed. The claimant is not able and available for work at this time and did take a leave of absence beginning February 18, 2014. Benefits are withheld until such time as the claimant makes herself available for work to the extent she was available during her base period history.
