ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

PETERSON CONTRACTORS INC

Employer

OC: 02/20/22

Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from the March 9, 2022 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits finding he voluntarily quit his employment on November 30, 2021 for personal reasons. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A hearing was held in Waterloo, Iowa on June 14, 2022. Claimant participated. Employer did not participate. Claimant's Exhibits A – C were not admitted.

ISSUES:

Whether claimant's separation was a voluntary quit without good cause attributable to employer.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

Claimant was employed as a full-time Heavy Equipment Operator from July 19, 2019 until his employment with Peterson Contractors ended on November 30, 2021.

Claimant injured his back at work on September 22, 2020. Claimant received medical treatment and was restricted by a physician from performing work as a heavy equipment operator. Employer was aware of the restrictions. Claimant's restriction from working as a heavy equipment operator remain in place.

Claimant performed no work for employer after September 22, 2020 but received his regular wages from employer until on or about October 6, 2021. On November 30, 2021, claimant submitted his written resignation because he had received no compensation or offers of work within his restrictions from employer since October 6, 2021.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

lowa Code § 96.5(1) provides: An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, if the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

A voluntary quitting means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer and requires an intention to terminate the employment. Wills v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 447 N.W. 2d 137, 138 (lowa 1989). A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention. Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (lowa 1980); Peck v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 492 N.W.2d 438 (lowa Ct. App. 1992).

Claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). "Good cause" for leaving employment must be that which is reasonable to the average person, not the overly sensitive individual or the claimant in particular. Uniweld Products v. Indus. Relations Comm'n, 277 So.2d 827 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1973). The standard of what a reasonable person would have believed under the circumstances is applied in determining whether a claimant left work voluntarily with good cause attributable to the employer. O'Brien v. Employment Appeal Bd., 494 N.W.2d 660 (Iowa 1993).

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.26(6)b provides:

Voluntary quit with good cause attributable to the employer and separations not considered to be voluntary quits. The following are reasons for a claimant leaving employment with good cause attributable to the employer:

- (6) Separation because of illness, injury, or pregnancy.
- b. Employment related separation. The claimant was compelled to leave employment because of an illness, injury, or allergy condition that was attributable to the employment. Factors and circumstances directly connected with the employment which caused or aggravated the illness, injury, allergy, or disease to the employee which made it impossible for the employee to continue in employment because of serious danger to the employee's health may be held to be an involuntary termination of employment and constitute good cause attributable to the employer. The claimant will be eligible for benefits if compelled to leave employment as a result of an injury suffered on the job.

In order to be eligible under this paragraph "b" an individual must present competent evidence showing adequate health reasons to justify termination; before quitting have informed the employer of the work-related health problem and inform the employer that the individual intends to quit unless the problem is corrected or the individual is reasonably accommodated. Reasonable accommodation includes other comparable work which is not injurious to the claimant's health and for which the claimant must remain available.

Claimant was compelled to leave his employment due to an employment-related injury that employer was not willing to accommodate. Claimant has met his burden of proving he voluntarily quit with good cause attributable to employer. Benefits are allowed provided claimant is otherwise eligible.

DECISION:

The March 9, 2022 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. Claimant voluntarily quit with good cause attributable to employer. Benefits are allowed provided claimant is otherwise eligible.
