ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 04/09/23
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able to and Available for Work
Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Filing – Timely Appeal
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35 – Filing

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant, Robin Anderson, appealed a representative's decision that she was not able to and available for works dated May 24, 2023 (reference 02) and a hearing was scheduled for October 23, 2023. An ALJ decision was issued October 23, 2023 dismissing the appeal. The claimant appealed the decision to the EAB. On December 4, 2023, the EAB issued a decision remanding the matter for a new hearing. A new hearing was scheduled for December 20, 2023. The claimant requested a continuance. A new hearing was scheduled for January 17, 2024. A hearing notice was mailed to the parties on December 22, 2023 setting the new hearing date for January 17, 2023. A hearing was scheduled and held on January 17, 2024 pursuant to due notice. Claimant did participate. The employer did participate through hearing representative Ms. Ray and witness, Amy Mickey. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record. No exhibits were offered or admitted into evidence.

ISSUE:

Whether claimant filed a timely appeal.
Whether claimant was able to and available for work.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The Unemployment Insurance Decision was mailed to claimant at the correct address on May 24, 2023. The claimant received the decision and spoke to someone from Workforce Development because she was not intending on filing for unemployment with Hy-Vee as the employer. She did not file an appeal to the decision until October 6, 2023 when she appealed the overpayment decision.

The decision states that it becomes final unless an appeal is postmarked or received by Iowa Workforce Development Appeals Section by June 3, 2023. However, if the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, the appeal period is extended to the next working day

Claimant appealed the decision on October 6, 2023. Claimant's appeal was received by Iowa Workforce Development on October 6, 2023.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's appeal was untimely.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: "[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision."

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). The question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion? Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

Claimant received the decision prior to the appeal deadline but did not appeal the decision until after the deadline. Claimant's delay was not due to agency error or misinformation or delay of the United States Postal Service. The appeal was not timely. Therefore, the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the appeal.

DECISION:

Claimant's appeal was not timely. The administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of the representative. The May 24, 2023 (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed.
