UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE APPEALS BUREAU

ELIZABETH MANTHE
Claimant

APPEAL 24A-UI-04515-SN-T
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

OC: 04/07/24
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(2) – Able & Available - Benefits Eligibility Conditions

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant, Elizabeth Manthe, filed an appeal from the May 1, 2024, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits effective April 28, 2024, based upon the conclusion she had not made adequate efforts to obtain childcare. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on May 23, 2024, at 3:00 p.m. The claimant participated.

ISSUE:

Whether the claimant was able and available for work effective April 28, 2024?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

The claimant separated from employment with Safelite Fulfillment Inc on April 2, 2024.

The claimant has a minor child that has autism. The child attends a center from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. The claimant was able to drop her child off during her employment with Safelite Fulfillment Inc. because she started at 8:30 a.m. The administrative records show the claimant's wage credits were earned exclusively at Safelite Fulfillment Inc. The claimant's mother-in-law can pick up her child from work at 4:30 p.m. each day.

The claimant has been looking for full-time work in the Quad Cities area. She contends she can find work that allows her to drop her child off at 8:00 a.m. before starting her shift. For instance, the claimant disclosed this in an interview with Smart Automotive. She has received an offer of employment subject to a background check from Smart Automotive. The claimant also applied for a job at McGrath Harley Davidson that had working hours from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The administrative law judge concludes that the claimant was able to work and available for work effective April 28, 2024.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3)a provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. a. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(2) provides:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(2) Available for work. The availability requirement is satisfied when an individual is willing, able, and ready to accept suitable work which the individual does not have good cause to refuse, that is, the individual is genuinely attached to the labor market. Since, under unemployment insurance laws, it is the availability of an individual that is required to be tested, the labor market must be described in terms of the individual. A labor market for an individual means a market for the type of service which the individual offers in the geographical area in which the individual offers the service. Market in that sense does not mean that job vacancies must exist; the purpose of unemployment insurance is to compensate for lack of job vacancies. It means only that the type of services which an individual is offering is generally performed in the geographical area in which the individual is offering the services.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(2) provides, in relevant part:

Benefit eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

a. Shift restriction. The individual does not have to be available for a particular shift. If an individual is available for work on the same basis on which the individual's wage credits were earned and if after considering the restrictions as to hours of work, etc., imposed by the individual there exists a reasonable expectation of securing employment, then the individual meets the requirement of being available for work.

To be eligible for benefits, an individual claiming benefits must be able to work, available for work, and actively and earnestly seeking work. In this case, the claimant is able and available for work because she has arrangements for her mother-in-law to pick up her child from the center at 4:30 p.m. The claimant is also available for work in the same capacity as she was when she earned these wage credits from Safelite Fulfillment Inc. Finally, the claimant's conditional offer of employment from another employer, despite informing it of these limitations, shows there is a reasonable expectation of securing employment. Accordingly, benefits are granted effective April 28, 2024.

DECISION:

The May 1, 2024, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision is REVERSED. The claimant was able to work and available for work effective April 28, 2024. Benefits are granted, provided she is otherwise eligible.
