Claimant: Appellant (1R)

---

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting
Iowa Code Chapter 96 – Requalification

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On January 30, 2023, the claimant filed an appeal from the unemployment insurance decision dated January 26, 2023, (Reference 01) that denied benefits. A telephone hearing was held at 11:00 a.m. on February 14, 2023. The claimant participated personally. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Has the claimant requalified for benefits since the separation?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge finds that:

The claimant was a Driver for Gray Transportation and quit the employment on October 24, 2022. The claimant established a claim for benefits with an effective date of January 1, 2023.

The claimant testified that he has worked and earned wages since that decision that are at least ten times his weekly benefit amount.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge finds that the claimant's separation from his employment with Gray Transportation was a voluntary quit without good cause attributable to the employer.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(4) provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.28(5) provides:

Voluntary quit requalifications and previously adjudicated voluntary quit issues.

(5) The claimant shall be eligible for benefits even though the claimant voluntarily quit if the claimant left for the sole purpose of accepting an offer of other or better employment, which the claimant did accept, and from which the claimant is separated, before or after having started the new employment. The employment does not have to be covered employment and does not include self-employment.

The claimant voluntarily left his position without good cause attributable to the employer. The claimant has documentation from two other employers that he can provide to the Department to demonstrate that he has requalified for benefits based upon wage earnings.

DECISION:

The January 26, 2023, (Reference 01), decision of the Department is AFFIRMED. The claimant's separation on October 25, 2022, was a voluntary quit without good cause attributable to the employer.

REMAND:

The matter of the claimant's requalification for benefits based upon earnings since his separation from Gray Transportation is remanded to the Department for a determination of eligibility.
