ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 02/26/23
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.26(19) – Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On March 27, 2023, the claimant filed an appeal from the March 22, 2023, (Reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits. Notices of hearing were mailed to the parties' last known addresses of record for a telephone hearing scheduled for 9:00 a.m. on April 12, 2023. The claimant participated personally. The employer did not participate. No exhibits were offered or admitted to the record. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Did claimant voluntarily quit the employment without good cause attributable to employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

The claimant worked for this employer from April 1, 2002, until February 17, 2023, when she was laid off by the employer. The employer is moving its operation to another location and asked the claimant to stay on until February. She did so and was released by the employer on February 17, 2023. The claimant did not quit the employment.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant did not quit the employment but was laid off by the employer. Disqualifying misconduct has not been established, and benefits are allowed.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(4) provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

The claimant was laid off by the employer because the employer is moving the operation elsewhere. The claimant did not quit the employment. Benefits are allowed.

DECISION:

The March 22, 2023, (Reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is REVERSED. The claimant was claimant was laid off from the employment, and benefits are allowed.
