(Decision Dated & Mailed)

Section 96.5(1)j – Quit/Temporary
Section 96.3(7) – Overpayment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer, CNE Ltd., filed an appeal from a decision dated July 15, 2005, reference 01. The decision allowed benefits to the claimant, Sarah Jane Hannan. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held by telephone conference call on August 8, 2005. The claimant participated on her own behalf. The employer participated by Staffing Administrator Shelly Olson. Exhibit One was admitted into the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having heard the testimony of the witnesses and having examined all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Sarah Jane Hannan was employed by CNE from December 3, 2004 until January 27, 2005. She had one assignment during this time at Varsity Cleaners. On January 21, 2005, the client requested CNE to remove Ms. Hannan from the assignment because her speed was not satisfactory.

At the time of hire the claimant signed a policy statement which informed her she must call the employer within three working days of the end of each assignment to request further work. Ms. Hannan was aware of the requirement but elected not to contact the employer because she wanted to look for permanent work.

The claimant filed for unemployment benefits with an effective date of June 12, 2005. Her weekly benefit amount is $182.00 which she has received since filing the claim. Ms. Hannan worked for another company from early February until early June 2005, but did not know her gross wages during that time and the records of Iowa Workforce Development do not show the second quarter 2005 earnings from that employer.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The issue is whether the claimant is disqualified. The judge concludes she is.

Iowa Code section 96.5-1-j provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department, but the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

j. The individual is a temporary employee of a temporary employment firm who notifies the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment and who seeks reassignment. Failure of the individual to notify the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment within three working days of the completion of each employment assignment under a contract of hire shall be deemed a voluntary quit unless the individual was not advised in writing of the duty to notify the temporary employment firm upon completion of an employment assignment or the individual had good cause for not contacting the temporary employment firm within three working days and notified the firm at the first reasonable opportunity thereafter.

To show that the employee was advised in writing of the notification requirement of this paragraph, the temporary employment firm shall advise the temporary employee by requiring the temporary employee, at the time of employment with the temporary employment firm, to read and sign a document that provides a clear and concise explanation of the notification requirement and the consequences of a failure to notify. The document shall be separate from any contract of employment and a copy of the signed document shall be provided to the temporary employee.

For the purposes of this paragraph:

(1) "Temporary employee" means an individual who is employed by a temporary employment firm to provide services to clients to supplement their work force during absences, seasonal workloads, temporary skill or labor market shortages, and for special assignments and projects.

(2) "Temporary employment firm" means a person engaged in the business of employing temporary employees.

The claimant elected to quit her employment with CNE because she was seeking a permanent job rather than temporary positions. Instead of notifying the employer, she simply failed to call in during the three-day time period required. Under the provisions of the above Code section, this is a voluntary quit without good cause attributable to the employer. The claimant is disqualified.

Iowa Code section 96.3-7 provides:

7. Recovery of overpayment of benefits. If an individual receives benefits for which the individual is subsequently determined to be ineligible, even though the individual acts in good faith and is not otherwise at fault, the benefits shall be recovered. The department in its discretion may recover the overpayment of benefits either by having a sum equal to the overpayment deducted from any future benefits payable to the individual or by having the individual pay to the department a sum equal to the overpayment.

If the department determines that an overpayment has been made, the charge for the overpayment against the employer's account shall be removed and the account shall be credited with an amount equal to the overpayment from the unemployment compensation trust fund and this credit shall include both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

The claimant has received unemployment benefits to which she is not entitled. These must be recovered in accordance with the provisions of Iowa law. The claimant may have requalified for benefits by earning ten times her weekly benefit but would need to provide evidence in the form of her checks or other earning statements to her local Workforce Center.

DECISION:

The representative's decision of July 15, 2005, reference 01, is reversed. Sarah Jane Hannan is disqualified and benefits are withheld until she has earned ten times her weekly benefit amount provided she is otherwise eligible. She is overpaid in the amount of $671.00.
