APPEAL 23A-UI-08533-AR-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

CASEY'S MARKETING COMPANY
Employer

OC: 05/21/23
Claimant: Respondent (1R)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Protest
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(6) – Appeal from the Statement of Charges

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On September 7, 2023, Casey's Marketing Company (employer) filed an appeal from the statement of charges dated August 9, 2023, (reference 07), for the second quarter of 2023. A hearing was held on September 25, 2023, pursuant to due notice. Aviontae Whitely (claimant) did not participate. The employer participated through Operations Manager Jennifer Juarez. No exhibits were offered or admitted. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Was the employer's protest timely?
Was the employer's appeal from the statement of charges timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant separated from employment on May 11, 2023, and filed a claim for benefits effective May 21, 2023. On June 15, 2023, Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) issued a decision (reference 01) denying unemployment insurance benefits and the claimant's claim was locked. Claimant appealed the denial. On July 18, 2023, an administrative law judge issued a decision affirming the denial of benefits. See 23A-UI-06303-ED-T. That decision was not appealed and has become final. On July 11, 2023, IWD issued a decision finding the claimant had been overpaid unemployment insurance benefits, which removed the charges from the employer's account.

The employer's next notice of the claimant's claim for benefits was the receipt of the statement of charges mailed August 9, 2023, for the second quarter of 2023. The employer submitted its appeal of that statement of charges on September 7, 2023.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the following reason, the administrative law judge concludes the employer does not have appeal rights to the statement of charges.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

Filing – determination – appeal.

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(6) provides:

Employer contribution and reimbursements.

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (6) Within forty days after the close of each calendar quarter, the department shall notify each employer of the amount of benefits charged to the employer's account during that quarter. The notification shall show the name of each individual to whom benefits were paid, the individual's social security number, and the amount of benefits paid to the individual. An employer which has not been notified as provided in section 96.6, subsection 2, of the allowance of benefits to an individual, may within thirty days after the date of mailing of the notification appeal to the department for a hearing to determine the eligibility of the individual to receive benefits. The appeal shall be referred to an administrative law judge for hearing and the employer and the individual shall receive notice of the time and place of the hearing.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—26.4 provides, in relevant part:

2. An appeal from an initial decision concerning the allowance or denial of benefits shall be filed, by mail, facsimile, or e-mail, online, or in person, not later than ten calendar days, as determined by the postmark or the date stamp after the decision was mailed to the party at its last-known address and shall state the following:

- a. The name, address and social security number of the claimant;
- b. A reference to the decision from which appeal is taken; and,
- c. The grounds upon which the appeal is based.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a contributory employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 30 days from the mailing date of the quarterly statement of benefit charges.

4. Also notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a reimbursable employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 15 days of the mailing date of the quarterly billing of benefit charges.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(6) states that a contributory employer who did not receive notice of the claim, or was not notified of the allowance of benefits, may appeal to the department following receipt of a statement of charges. In this case, the agency denied benefits to the claimant and that decision has become final. The employer had prior notice of the claim, but the charges are not credited to the employer's account until an overpayment decision is issued. The overpayment decision has been issued, but it does not appear that a credit has been made to the employer's account. The employer does not have appeal rights to the statement of charges.

The issue will be remanded to the Tax Bureau to credit the employer's account if it has not already been done.

DECISION:

The August 9, 2023, (reference 07) statement of charges for the second quarter of 2023 is AFFIRMED. The employer had prior notice of the claim and does not have appeal rights to the statement of charges.

REMAND:

If not already done, the employer's account shall be credited the benefits paid to the claimant on a future statement of charges based on the decision denying benefits and the finding that claimant was overpaid.
