AMENDED

DECISION

OC: 10/15/23
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Filing – Timely Appeal
Iowa Code § 96.5(2)a – Discharge
Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant, filed an appeal from the November 14, 2023 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that claimant's appeal was not timely. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on April 11, 2024. Claimant, Emilea Billick, participated personally. Employer, Learn & Play Preschool & Daycare, participated through Mary Sires. No exhibits were offered or admitted. Official notice was taken of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Whether claimant filed a timely appeal.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The decision denying benefits based on a voluntary quit without good cause was mailed to the claimant on November 14, 2023. The decision stated the claimant was still eligible for benefits due to wages earned from other employers.

The decision states that it becomes final unless an appeal is postmarked or received by Iowa Workforce Development Appeals Section by November 24, 2023. However, if the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, the appeal period is extended to the next working day. The claimant received the November 14, 2023 decision before the appeal deadline. The claimant's appeal was received on March 19, 2024. Claimant did not submit her appeal during the time period it was due because she thought the decision was correct; she did not expect to be receiving benefits based on her separation from employment with Learn and Play Preschool and Daycare. She did not learn she had been receiving benefits based on her separation from Learn and Play Preschool and Daycare until she received the overpayment decision mailed on March 11, 2024. Upon receiving the March 11, 2024 decision, she submitted a timely appeal on March 19, 2024.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's appeal was untimely.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: "[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision."

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). The question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion? Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

Claimant received the notice prior to the appeal deadline but did not appeal the notice until after the deadline. Claimant's delay was not due to agency error or misinformation or delay of the United States Postal Service. Claimant's delay not appealing the decision because she thought it was a correct decision and she would not be receiving benefits through her employment with Learn and Play Preschool and Daycare. The appeal was not timely. Therefore, the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the appeal.

DECISION:

Claimant's appeal was not timely. The administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of the representative. The November 14, 2023 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed.

2. Si nadie presenta una apelación de la decisión del juez ante la Junta de Apelaciones Laborales dentro de los quince (15) días, la decisión se convierte en acción final de la agencia y usted tiene la opción de presentar una petición de revisión judicial en el Tribunal de Distrito dentro de los treinta (30) días después de que la decisión adquiriera firmeza.
