(Decision Dated & Mailed)

Section 96.4-3 – Able and Available

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Dean Gorsch (claimant) appealed an unemployment insurance decision dated June 9, 2006, reference 02, which held that he was not eligible for unemployment insurance benefits because he did not meet the availability requirements of the law. After a hearing notice was mailed to the party's last-known address of record, a telephone hearing was held on July 5, 2006. The claimant participated in the hearing.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds that: The claimant was not able to work the week ending May 27, 2006 due to medical problems. He is currently able and available to work.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The issue to be determined is whether the claimant is able and available for work.

Iowa Code section 96.4-3 provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph 1, or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

871 IAC 24.22(1)a provides:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(1) Able to work. An individual must be physically and mentally able to work in some gainful employment, not necessarily in the individual's customary occupation, but which is engaged in by others as a means of livelihood.

a. Illness, injury or pregnancy. Each case is decided upon an individual basis, recognizing that various work opportunities present different physical requirements. A statement from a medical practitioner is considered prima facie evidence of the physical ability of the individual to perform the work required. A pregnant individual must meet the same criteria for determining ableness as do all other individuals.

The claimant has the burden of proof in establishing his ability and availability for work. Davoren v. Iowa Employment Security Commission, 277 N.W.2d 602 (Iowa 1979). He testified he was not able to work for the one-week period ending May 27, 2006 but is able to work now. The claimant does not meet the availability requirements of the law for the week ending May 27, 2006 and is not entitled to benefits for that week.

DECISION:

The unemployment insurance decision dated June 9, 2006, reference 02, is affirmed. The claimant was not able to work the week ending May 27, 2006 and is not eligible for benefits that week.
