BRENDA M MORRISON
Claimant

APPEAL 22A-UI-11987-SN-T
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

KOHL'S DEPARTMENT STORES INC
Employer

OC: 04/03/22
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant, Brenda M Morrison, filed an appeal from the May 4, 2022, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based upon her voluntary resignation. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on July 13, 2022. The claimant participated and testified. The employer participated through Amy Farley. The employer was represented by Unemployment Insurance Representative John Soete. Official notice was taken of the administrative record. Exhibits A, B, and C were received into the record.

ISSUE:

Was the separation a layoff, discharge for misconduct or voluntary quit without good cause attributable to the employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

The claimant was employed part-time as a sales associate / customer service associate from August 31, 2021, until she was separated from employment on February 8, 2022, when she quit.

The employer has a rule that states, “No-call / no-show job abandonment – termination. You may be terminated for three consecutive no call no shows in a 12 month period.” The claimant acknowledged the existence of this rule.

The claimant was a no call / no show for shifts occurring on February 10, 2022, February 12, 2022, February 14, 2022, February 17, 2022, February 18, 2022.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant’s separation from the employment was without good cause attributable to the employer.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25 provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

(4) The claimant was absent for three days without giving notice to employer in violation of company rule.

Claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). "Good cause" for leaving employment must be that which is reasonable to the average person, not the overly sensitive individual or the claimant in particular. Uniweld Products v. Indus. Relations Comm'n, 277 So.2d 827 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1973). A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention. Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (Iowa 1980).

The claimant contends that her work environment was such that it exacerbated her medical condition. To the extent the claimant is contending her workplace was objectively intolerable such to make her quitting attributable to the employer, the administrative law judge disagrees. The claimant described frustrations and difficulties in her work. The administrative law judge is sympathetic to that, but these circumstances do not rise to the level of objective intolerability under Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(4).

While claimant's leaving may have been based upon good personal reasons, it was not for a good-cause reason attributable to the employer according to Iowa law. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The May 4, 2022, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. The claimant voluntarily left her employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are withheld until such time as she has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times her weekly benefit amount, provided she is otherwise eligible.
