ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 08/27/23
Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Protest

Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(6) – Appeal from the Statement of Charges

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On February 15, 2024, the employer filed an appeal from the Statement of Charges mailed from the Department on February 9, 2024, (Reference 07) for the 4th Quarter of 2023. A hearing was held on March 12, 2024, pursuant to due notice. The employer participated through Kelsey Phillips, Staff Coordinator. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Was the employer's protest timely?

Was the employer's appeal from the statement of charges timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The claimant worked as a Warehouse Associate and separated from the employer on September 23, 2022. The claimant filed a claim for benefits with an original effective date of August 27, 2023. A Notice of Claim was mailed to the employer at the same address that appears on the Notice of Hearing on September 1, 2023. The employer does not know whether this Notice was received. The employer believes they received no other communication from the Department regarding this claim until the Statement of Charges mailed February 9, 2024.

The employer filed its timely appeal of that Statement of Charges on February 15, 2024.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The administrative law judge concludes that the employer has filed a timely appeal from the Statement of Charges mailed February 9, 2024 for the 4th Quarter of 2023. The administrative law judge further finds that the employer did not timely protest the original Notice of Claim.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(6) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (6) Within forty days after the close of each calendar quarter, the department shall notify each employer of the amount of benefits charged to the employer's account during that quarter. The notification shall show the name of each individual to whom benefits were paid, the individual's social security number, and the amount of benefits paid to the individual. An employer which has not been notified as provided in section 96.6, subsection 2, of the allowance of benefits to an individual, may within thirty days after the date of mailing of the notification appeal to the department for a hearing to determine the eligibility of the individual to receive benefits. The appeal shall be referred to an administrative law judge for hearing and the employer and the individual shall receive notice of the time and place of the hearing.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.4 provides, in relevant part:

2. An appeal from an initial decision concerning the allowance or denial of benefits shall be filed, by mail, facsimile, or e-mail, online, or in person, not later than ten calendar days, as determined by the postmark or the date stamp after the decision was mailed to the party at its last-known address and shall state the following:

- a. The name, address and social security number of the claimant;
- b. A reference to the decision from which appeal is taken; and,
- c. The grounds upon which the appeal is based.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a contributory employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 30 days from the mailing date of the quarterly statement of benefit charges.

4. Also notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a reimbursable employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 15 days of the mailing date of the quarterly billing of benefit charges.

It is the duty of the administrative law judge, as the trier of fact, to determine the credibility of witnesses, weigh the evidence and decide the facts in issue. Arndt v. City of LeClaire, 728 N.W.2d 389, 394-395 (Iowa 2007). The administrative law judge may believe all, part or none of any witness's testimony. State v. Holtz, 548 N.W.2d 162, 163 (Iowa App. 1996). In assessing the credibility of witnesses, the administrative law judge should consider the evidence using his or her own observations, common sense and experience. Id. In determining the facts, and deciding what testimony to believe, the fact finder may consider the following factors: whether the testimony is reasonable and consistent with other evidence you believe; whether a witness has made inconsistent statements; the witness's appearance, conduct, age, intelligence, memory and knowledge of the facts; and the witness's interest in the trial, their motive, candor, bias and prejudice. Id.

The administrative law judge does not find credible the employer's assertion in testimony that the original Notice of Claim was not received. The employer's witness was uncertain whether she or someone else within the company would have received the Notice at that time. There is nothing in the record to suggest that there was any error or delay on the part of the Department or the United States Postal Service that resulted in the Notice going undelivered. Rather, it appears that the employer simply does not know how this claim was handled prior to receiving the Statement of Charges mailed February 9, 2024. Since the employer failed to credibly show that they did not receive the Notice of Claim and did not protest the claim, they cannot now challenge the Statement of Charges.

DECISION:

The February 9, 2024, statement of charges for the 4th Quarter of 2023 is AFFIRMED.
