SECTION: 96.5-2A, 96.3-7

DECISION

UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS ARE DENIED

The Claimant appealed this case to the Employment Appeal Board. The members of the Employment Appeal Board reviewed the entire record. The Appeal Board finds the administrative law judge's decision is correct. The administrative law judge's Findings of Fact and Reasoning and Conclusions of Law are adopted by the Board as its own. The administrative law judge's decision is AFFIRMED.

The Claimant asserts reasons for missing the hearing that normally would be good cause for missing. But the Claimant's explanation lacks detail. We cannot tell why he implies that proper notice was not given. Did he not receive the notice, did he receive it late, or does he think that he should have been called? (We note the notice clearly requires the parties to initiate the call at the time of the hearing.) The Claimant is encouraged to supply the missing detail, and to provide any supporting documents, by applying for rehearing within 20 days of today's decision.

The Claimant has requested this matter be remanded for a new hearing. The Employment Appeal Board finds the applicant did not follow the instructions on the notice of hearing. Therefore, good cause has not been established to remand this matter. The remand request is DENIED.
