APPEAL 22A-UI-15323-CS
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 05/29/22
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code §96.5(2)a-Discharge/Misconduct
Iowa Code §96.5(1)- Voluntary Quit
Iowa Code § 96.5(1)j – Voluntary Quitting – Temporary Employment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On July 18, 2022, the claimant/appellant filed an appeal from the July 15, 2022, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based on claimant voluntarily quitting work on May 29, 2022, by failing to report to work for three days in a row and not notifying the employer. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. An in-person hearing was held in Davenport, Iowa, on August 22, 2022. Claimant participated. Employer notified the appeals bureau they elected not to participate. Administrative notice was taken of claimant's unemployment insurance benefits records.

ISSUES:

- I. Was the separation a layoff, discharge for misconduct, or voluntary quit without good cause?
- II. Did the claimant quit by not reporting for additional work assignments within three business days of the end of the last assignment?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant began working for employer on February 21, 2022. The employer is an employment agency. Claimant's first and only assignment was with Eastern Iowa Community College as a full-time truck-driving instructor.

Claimant's class graduated on June 3, 2022. Another semester was scheduled to begin on June 6, 2022. On June 3, 2022, claimant was notified there were not enough students for a class the next semester. Claimant was notified he was laid off until the following semester that was scheduled to begin in August 2022.

On June 3, 2022, claimant notified employer he was laid off from Eastern Iowa Community College. The employer directed claimant to file for unemployment insurance benefits.

Claimant did not received a written notice directing him to report to the employer within three business days to request another job assignment. The employer was not at the hearing to present evidence of claimant receiving the three-day notice.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant's separation was with good cause attributable to the employer.

Iowa Code § 96.5(1)j provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department. But the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

j. (1) The individual is a temporary employee of a temporary employment firm who notifies the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment and who seeks reassignment. Failure of the individual to notify the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment within three working days of the completion of each employment assignment under a contract of hire shall be deemed a voluntary quit unless the individual was not advised in writing of the duty to notify the temporary employment firm upon completion of an employment assignment or the individual had good cause for not contacting the temporary employment firm within three working days and notified the firm at the first reasonable opportunity thereafter.

(2) To show that the employee was advised in writing of the notification requirement of this paragraph, the temporary employment firm shall advise the temporary employee by requiring the temporary employee, at the time of employment with the temporary employment firm, to read and sign a document that provides a clear and concise explanation of the notification requirement and the consequences of a failure to notify. The document shall be separate from any contract of employment and a copy of the signed document shall be provided to the temporary employee.

(3) For the purposes of this lettered paragraph:

(a) "Temporary employee" means an individual who is employed by a temporary employment firm to provide services to clients to supplement their work force during absences, seasonal workloads, temporary skill or labor market shortages, and for special assignments and projects.

(b) "Temporary employment firm" means a person engaged in the business of employing temporary employees.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.26(19) provides:

Voluntary quit with good cause attributable to the employer and separations not considered to be voluntary quits. The following are reasons for a claimant leaving employment with good cause attributable to the employer:

(19) The claimant was employed on a temporary basis for assignment to spot jobs or casual labor work and fulfilled the contract of hire when each of the jobs was completed. An election not to report for a new assignment to work shall not be construed as a voluntary leaving of employment. The issue of a refusal of an offer of suitable work shall be adjudicated when an offer of work is made by the former employer. The provisions of Iowa Code § 96.5(3) and rule 24.24(96) are controlling in the determination of suitability of work. However, this subrule shall not apply to substitute school employees who are subject to the provisions of Iowa Code § 96.4(5) which denies benefits that are based on service in an educational institution when the individual declines or refuses to accept a new contract or reasonable assurance of continued employment status. Under this circumstance, the substitute school employee shall be considered to have voluntarily quit employment.

Since employer failed to provide evidence that it presented claimant with a written copy of the reporting policy, claimant's recollection that he did not receive notice of the reporting policy is credible. Furthermore, employer's instruction to claimant to file for unemployment benefits infers there was no further work available at the time. No disqualification is imposed, benefits are allowed.

DECISION:

The July 15, 2022, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision is REVERSED. The claimant's separation from employment was attributable to the employer. Benefits are allowed, provided he is otherwise eligible. Any benefits claimed and withheld on this basis shall be paid.
