DECISION

Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able to and Available for Work

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Jennifer Lovelett, the employer/appellant,¹ filed an appeal from the Iowa Workforce Development April 17, 2023 (reference 01) unemployment insurance (UI) decision. The decision denied Ms. Lovelett REGULAR (state) UI benefits as of March 12, 2023 because IWD concluded that she was not able to work due to illness. The Iowa Department of Inspections and Appeals (DIA) UI Appeals Bureau mailed a notice of hearing to Ms. Lovelett and the employer. The undersigned administrative law judge held a telephone hearing on May 11, 2023. Ms. Lovelett participated personally. The employer did not participate in the hearing. The undersigned took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Is Ms. Lovelett able to and available for work as of March 12, 2023?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the undersigned finds: Ms. Lovelett began working for the employer in 2020. She works as a full-time expeditor. Ms. Lovelett was not feeling well so she went to the doctor on Friday, March 10, 2023. Ms. Lovelett tested positive for COVID-19 that day and her doctor advised her to self-quarantine until Tuesday, March 14. Ms. Lovelett did so. Ms. Lovelett returned to work on Wednesday, March 15.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the undersigned concludes as follows:

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

¹ Appellant is the person or employer who filed the appeal.

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(1) provides:

Benefit eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(1) Able to work. An individual must be physically and mentally able to work in some gainful employment, not necessarily in the individual's customary occupation, but which is engaged in by others as a means of livelihood.

a. Illness, injury or pregnancy. Each case is decided upon an individual basis, recognizing that various work opportunities present different physical requirements. A statement from a medical practitioner is considered prima facie evidence of the physical ability of the individual to perform the work required. A pregnant individual must meet the same criteria for determining ableness as do all other individuals.

b. Interpretation of ability to work. The law provides that an individual must be able to work to be eligible for benefits. This means that the individual must be physically able to work, not necessarily in the individual's customary occupation, but able to work in some reasonably suitable, comparable, gainful, full-time endeavor, other than self-employment, which is generally available in the labor market in which the individual resides.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(1) and (35) provide:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(1) An individual who is ill and presently not able to perform work due to illness.

(35) Where the claimant is not able to work and is under the care of a medical practitioner and has not been released as being able to work.

To be able to work, "[a]n individual must be physically and mentally able to work in some gainful employment, not necessarily in the individual's customary occupation, but which is engaged in by others as a means of livelihood."² "An evaluation of an individual's ability to work for the purposes of determining that individual's eligibility for unemployment benefits must necessarily take into consideration the economic and legal forces at work in the general labor market in which the individual resides.”³ A person claiming benefits has the burden of proof that she is be able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.⁴

In this case, Ms. Lovelett was ill, and her doctor advised her to stay home. Ms. Lovelett is not available for work as of March 12, 2023, the effective date of her UI claim. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The April 17, 2023 (reference 01) UI decision is AFFIRMED. Ms. Lovelett is not able to and available for work as of March 12, 2023. Benefits are denied.
