APPEAL 23A-UI-07749-AR-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

OC: 03/05/23
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.3(7) – Recovery of Benefit Overpayment
Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On August 8, 2023, the claimant filed an appeal from the June 23, 2023, (reference 12) unemployment insurance decision that determined claimant is overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $551.00 for the one-week period ending April 15, 2023. After due notice was issued, a telephone hearing was held on August 24, 2023. Appeal numbers 23A-UI-07742-AR-T, 23A-UI-07743-AR-T, 23A-UI-07744-AR-T, 23A-UI-07745-AR-T, 23A-UI-07746-AR-T, 23A-UI-07747-AR-T, 23A-UI-07748-AR-T, 23A-UI-07749-AR-T, and 23A-UI-07750-AR-T were heard together and created one record. Claimant had hearings scheduled at 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. Neither claimant nor the agency called in to participate in the 9:00 a.m. hearing. At 10:00 a.m. local time, claimant called the hearing conference line number, because she forgot that Iowa is one hour behind Indiana, where she lives. Because claimant was ready to proceed at 10:00 a.m., and because the agency had been given the opportunity to participate in the 9:00 a.m. hearing and had not, the administrative law judge handled all of the companion hearings together during the 10:00 a.m. hour. Claimant, Pamela Footman, participated. The agency, Iowa Workforce Development (IWD), did not participate. Department's Exhibit D-1 was admitted. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Is the claimant's appeal timely?
Is the claimant overpaid regular unemployment insurance benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant filed for and has received regular unemployment insurance benefits in the gross amount of $551.00 for the one-week period ending April 15, 2023. On June 7, 2023, Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) issued a decision (reference 05) that disqualified claimant from receiving regular unemployment insurance benefits. That decision has been affirmed. See 23A-UI-07744-AR-T.

An unemployment insurance was mailed to claimant's last known address of record on June 23, 2023, to claimant's last known address of record. The decision warned that an appeal was due no later than July 3, 2023. Claimant did not receive the decision. Claimant filed her appeal on August 8, 2023, shortly after receiving an overpayment statement from IWD.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The administrative law judge concludes claimant has been overpaid benefits for the period in question.

The first issue to be considered in this appeal is whether the appeal is timely. The administrative law judge determines it is.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: “[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.”

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982).

The appellant did not have an opportunity to appeal the fact-finder's decision because the decision was not received. Without notice of a decision, no meaningful opportunity for appeal exists. See Smith v. Iowa Emp't Sec. Comm'n, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973). The claimant filed an appeal within a reasonable period of time after discovering the decision. Therefore, the appeal shall be accepted as timely.

Iowa Code section 96.3(7) provides, in pertinent part:

7. Recovery of overpayment of benefits.

a. If an individual receives benefits for which the individual is subsequently determined to be ineligible, even though the individual acts in good faith and is not otherwise at fault, the benefits shall be recovered. The department in its discretion may recover the overpayment of benefits either by having a sum equal to the overpayment deducted from any future benefits payable to the individual or by having the individual pay to the department a sum equal to the overpayment.

b. (1) (a) If the department determines that an overpayment has been made, the charge for the overpayment against the employer's account shall be removed and the account shall be credited with an amount equal to the overpayment from the unemployment compensation trust fund and this credit shall include both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

The administrative law judge concludes that the claimant has been overpaid regular unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $551.00. That amount must be repaid to the agency.

DECISION:

The claimant's appeal is accepted as timely. The June 23, 2023, (reference 12) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. Claimant has been overpaid regular unemployment insurance benefits, and those benefits must be repaid to the agency.
