PL 116-136, Sec. 2104 - Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation
Iowa Code § 96.19(38) - Total, Partial and Temporary Unemployment
Iowa Code § 96.5(5) - Payment - Other Compensation

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Ms. Rhonda Connell, claimant/appellant, appealed the May 11, 2022, (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision finding claimant was overpaid $3,000.00 in FPUC benefits for eight weeks between 04/12/20 and 06/06/20, due to incorrectly or failing to report wages earned with employer. Notices of hearing were mailed to the parties last known addresses of record for a telephone hearing originally scheduled for July 11, 2022, at 9:10AM. Claimant personally participated. Employer, Marquette Hotel Group, participated through Ada Waterman, general manager. The following hearings were held together as part of a consolidated hearing, Appeals: 22A-UI-12819-DH-T; 22A-UI-12820-DH-T; and 22A-UI-12825-DH-T. Judicial notice was taken of the administrative record (including employer's wage reports on claimant and the IWD Representative's worksheets), DBIN, and KPYX.

ISSUES:

Was claimant overpaid FPUC benefits?
Was claimant totally, partially, or temporarily unemployed?
Did claimant correctly report wages earned?
Is the claimant eligible for benefits based upon wages earned?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having heard the testimony and reviewed the evidence in the record, the undersigned finds:

The below table shows the benefit week ending for the wages reported by claimant and by employer that was addressed by the Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) representative and the IWD representative's findings for wages reported and overpayments regarding FPUC.

Benefit Week Ending	Wages Reported		Unemployment Benefits		Underpaid	Overpaid
	By Claimant	As found by IWD Rep. as to ER	Paid	Entitled per IWD Rep.	Per IWD Rep.	Per IWD Rep.
04/04/20	$85.00	$207.00	$600.00	$600.00
04/11/20	$85.00	$102.00	$600.00	$600.00
04/18/20	$85.00	$491.00	$600.00	$0.00		$600.00
04/25/20	$85.00	$116.00	$600.00	$600.00
05/02/20	$120.00	$320.00	$600.00	$0.00		$600.00

05/23/20	$185.00	$326.00	$600.00	$0.00		$600.00
05/30/20	$210.00	$481.00	$600.00	$0.00		$600.00
06/06/20	$211.00	$641.00	$600.00	$0.00		$600.00
				Sub Total		$3,000.00

In companion case 22A-UI-12820-DH-T, the wage reports were gone over with the parties for the above weeks in question with the ALJ making a determination regarding wages reported by claimant and employer, eligibility for benefits for a given week and whether there was any underpayment or overpayment. Those findings are adopted herein.

Claimant was the full-time head housekeeper for employer. Her start date was 02/14/16. At the time of hearing, claimant was still employed by employer. When COVID-19 (a world-wide pandemic) struck, employer furloughed most housekeepers. Claimant was the only one kept on with any regularity and her hours became more dependent upon how many rooms had been occupied, which greatly reduced her normal work hours due to COVID-19.

Claimant filed a claim for unemployment insurance benefits with an original claim date of 03/15/20 due to reduced work hours. Her weekly benefit amount (WBA) was $275.00. Claimant submitted weekly claims for the benefit weeks between 03/15/20 and 03/06/21. Claimant also received FPUC benefits when filing the same claims as above. Regarding the FPUC benefits received for the benefit weeks ending between 04/04/20 and 06/06/20, Claimant, by not reporting her wages correctly, was overpaid FPUC benefits.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

An issue in this case is whether the claimant failed to report wages. It is found that claimant failed to accurately report wages as addressed in the findings of fact.

Iowa Code section 96.5(5) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

5. Other compensation.

a. For any week with respect to which the individual is receiving or has received payment in the form of any of the following:

- (1) Wages in lieu of notice, separation allowance, severance pay, or dismissal pay.
- (2) Compensation for temporary disability under the workers' compensation law of any state or under a similar law of the United States.
- (3) A governmental or other pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity, or any other similar periodic payment made under a plan maintained or contributed to by a base period or chargeable employer where, except for benefits under the federal Social Security Act or the federal Railroad Retirement Act of 1974 or the corresponding provisions of prior law, the plan's eligibility requirements or benefit payments are affected by the base period employment or the remuneration for the base period employment. However, this subparagraph shall only be applicable if the base period employer has made one hundred percent of the contribution to the plan.

b. Provided, that if the remuneration is less than the benefits which would otherwise be due under this chapter, the individual is entitled to receive for the week, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of the remuneration. Provided further, if benefits were paid for any week under this chapter for a period when benefits, remuneration or compensation under paragraph "a", subparagraph (1), (2), or (3), were paid on a retroactive basis for the same period, or any part thereof, the department shall recover the excess amount of benefits paid by the department for the period, and no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid. However, compensation for service-connected disabilities or compensation for accrued leave based on military service by the beneficiary with the armed forces of the United States, irrespective of the amount of the benefit, does not disqualify any individual otherwise qualified from any of the benefits contemplated herein. A deduction shall not be made from the amount of benefits payable for a week for individuals receiving federal social security pensions to take into account the individuals' contributions to the pension program.

The above table shows claimant incorrectly reported her wages received versus what employer reported as her wages were.

The next issues in this case are whether the claimant is totally, partially, or temporarily unemployed and whether claimant was eligible for benefits/overpaid benefits which are to be repaid. For the reasons set forth below, it is found claimant was overpaid a net total amount of $1,200.00 in FPUC benefits that are to be repaid.

Iowa Code section 96.19(38) provides:

"Total and partial unemployment".

a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.

b. An individual shall be deemed "partially unemployed" in any week in which either of the following apply:

(1) While employed at the individual's then regular job, the individual works less than the regular full-time week and in which the individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

(2) The individual, having been separated from the individual's regular job, earns at odd jobs less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

c. An individual shall be deemed "temporarily unemployed" if for a period, verified by the department, not to exceed four consecutive weeks, the individual is unemployed due to a plant shutdown, vacation, inventory, lack of work, or emergency from the individual's regular job or trade in which the individual worked full-time and will again work full-time, if the individual's employment, although temporarily suspended, has not been terminated

PL116-136, Sec. 2104 provides, in pertinent part:

(b) Provisions of Agreement

(1) Federal pandemic unemployment compensation.--Any agreement under this section shall provide that the State agency of the State will make payments of regular compensation to individuals in amounts and to the extent that they would be determined if the State law of the State were applied, with respect to any week for which the individual is (disregarding this section) otherwise entitled under the State law to receive regular compensation, as if such State law had been modified in a manner such that the amount of regular compensation (including dependents' allowances) payable for any week shall be equal to

(A) the amount determined under the State law (before the application of this paragraph), plus

(B) an additional amount of $600 (in this section referred to as "Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation").

(f) Fraud and Overpayments

(2) Repayment.--In the case of individuals who have received amounts of Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation to which they were not entitled, the State shall require such individuals to repay the amounts of such Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation to the State agency...

By definition, claimant was not totally, partially, or temporarily unemployed and therefore disqualified from benefits for the two weeks ending 05/30/20 and ending 06/06/20. This is due to her earning more than her WBA plus $15.00, even though she got less than her normal hours.

Claimant was overpaid $1,200.00 in FPUC benefits, not the $3,000.00 as found by the IWD Representative, and the decision is so modified. This is represented through the below chart, showing wages as reported and entitled benefits based on the reported wages. Since in companion case 22A-UI-12820-DH-T, claimant's eligibility for regular unemployment benefits for any given week sometimes changed, if claimant were eligible for regular unemployment benefit for a given week and would be eligible for FPUC benefits for that week then they would get FPUC, however, any week that claimant might have received FPUC benefits, being ineligible for regular benefits made claimant ineligible for FPUC benefits.

The appeal period will be extended to the next business day if the last day to appeal falls on a weekend or a legal holiday.

AN APPEAL TO THE BOARD SHALL STATE CLEARLY:

- 1) The name, address, and social security number of the claimant.
- 2) A reference to the decision from which the appeal is taken.
- 3) That an appeal from such decision is being made and such appeal is signed.
- 4) The grounds upon which such appeal is based.

An Employment Appeal Board decision is final agency action. If a party disagrees with the Employment Appeal Board decision, they may then file a petition for judicial review in district court.

2. If no one files an appeal of the judge's decision with the Employment Appeal Board within fifteen (15) days, the decision becomes final agency action, and you have the option to file a petition for judicial review in District Court within thirty (30) days after the decision becomes final. Additional information on how to file a petition can be found at Iowa Code §17A.19, which is online at <https://www.legis.iowa.gov/docs/code/17A.19.pdf> or by contacting the District Court Clerk of Court <https://www.iowacourts.gov/iowa-courts/court-directory/>.

Note to Parties: YOU MAY REPRESENT yourself in the appeal or obtain a lawyer or other interested party to do so provided there is no expense to Workforce Development. If you wish to be represented by a lawyer, you may obtain the services of either a private attorney or one whose services are paid for with public funds.
