Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from the March 2, 2021 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was scheduled for March 14, 2023. No hearing was held because the appellant failed to call the toll-free number listed on the hearing notice at the time of the hearing. On March 15, 2023, a default decision was issued dismissing the appeal (number 23A-UI-02004-AW-T).

Claimant appealed to the Employment Appeal Board (EAB). On April 11, 2023, the EAB remanded this matter to the Appeals Bureau for a hearing on the merits. Upon remand, due notice was issued and a hearing was held on May 30, 2023. Claimant participated. Employer did not participate. Tigrinya interpretation was provided by Silmon (ID 15175) of CTS Language Link. No exhibits were admitted. Official notice was taken of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Whether claimant filed a timely appeal.
Whether claimant is totally, partially or temporarily unemployed.
Whether claimant is able to and available for work.
Whether claimant is still employed at the same hours and wages.
Whether employer's account is subject to charge.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

The Unemployment Insurance Decision was mailed to claimant at the correct address of record on March 2, 2021. Claimant did not receive the decision. The decision states that it becomes final unless an appeal is postmarked or received by Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) Appeals Section by March 12, 2021. Claimant eventually learned of the decision and filed an appeal online on February 24, 2023. IWD received the appeal on February 24, 2023.

Claimant filed an initial claim for unemployment benefits effective May 24, 2020 and ongoing weekly claims for the six weeks between May 24, 2020 and July 4, 2020. During that time, claimant was employed as a full-time Production Worker with Tyson Fresh Meats. Claimant was off of work for five weeks because he was sick with Covid-19. His symptoms were severe enough that he was unable to perform his job duties.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: “[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.”

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1)(c) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). The question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

Claimant did not receive the decision. Therefore, the appeal notice provisions were invalid. Claimant did not have a reasonable opportunity to file a timely appeal. He filed his appeal promptly upon learning of the decision. Claimant's appeal is considered timely.

The next issues to be considered are whether claimant was totally, partially or temporarily unemployed; whether claimant was still employed at the same hours and wages; whether claimant was able to and available for work and whether employer's account is subject to charge. For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code section 96.1A(37) provides:

"Total and partial unemployment".

a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

While claimant was sick with Covid-19, he performed no work and received no wages. Therefore, claimant was totally unemployed. Because claimant was totally unemployed, he is required to be able to and available for work. Claimant has the burden of proving that he was able to and available for work. Claimant was not able to and available for work because his symptoms from Covid-19 were too severe. Accordingly, claimant is not eligible for unemployment insurance benefits. .

Inasmuch as employer regular work available for claimant, no benefit charges shall be made to its account.

DECISION:

The appeal is timely. The March 2, 2021 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is MODIFIED WITH NO CHANGE IN EFFECT. Claimant was totally unemployed but not able to and available for work. Benefits are denied.
