Iowa Code § 96.3(7) – Recovery of Benefit Overpayment
PL116-136, Sec. 2104 – Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC)

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant/appellant, Aaron L. Crewse, filed an appeal from the October 30, 2020 (reference 05) Iowa Workforce Development (“IWD”) that unemployment insurance decision that concluded he was overpaid $4,800.00 in FPUC benefits. After proper notice, a telephone hearing was held on January 11, 2021. The hearing was held together with Appeals 20A-UI-14580-JC-T, 20A-UI-14581-JC-T, and 20A-UI-14413-JC-T. The claimant participated personally.

The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative records. Department Exhibit D-1 and Claimant Exhibit A were admitted. Based on the evidence, the arguments presented, and the law, the administrative law judge enters the following findings of fact, reasoning and conclusions of law, and decision.

ISSUE:

Has the claimant been overpaid FPUC benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having considered the evidence in the record, finds that: The claimant filed a new claim for unemployment insurance benefits with an effective date of March 15, 2020.

The claimant filed for and received federal benefits through Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC). The claimant was paid a total of $4,800.00 for the eight-week period ending June 13, 2020.

The unemployment insurance decision that disqualified the claimant from receiving unemployment insurance benefits has been affirmed in a decision of the administrative law judge in appeal 20A-UI-14580-JC-T.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The issue in this case is whether the claimant was overpaid FPUC benefits.

Iowa Code section 96.3(7) provides, in pertinent part:

7. Recovery of overpayment of benefits.

a. If an individual receives benefits for which the individual is subsequently determined to be ineligible, even though the individual acts in good faith and is not otherwise at fault, the benefits shall be recovered. The department in its discretion may recover the overpayment of benefits either by having a sum equal to the overpayment deducted from any future benefits payable to the individual or by having the individual pay to the department a sum equal to the overpayment.

PL116-136, Sec. 2104 provides, in pertinent part:

(b) Provisions of Agreement

(1) Federal pandemic unemployment compensation.--Any agreement under this section shall provide that the State agency of the State will make payments of regular compensation to individuals in amounts and to the extent that they would be determined if the State law of the State were applied, with respect to any week for which the individual is (disregarding this section) otherwise entitled under the State law to receive regular compensation, as if such State law had been modified in a manner such that the amount of regular compensation (including dependents' allowances) payable for any week shall be equal to

(A) the amount determined under the State law (before the application of this paragraph), plus

(B) an additional amount of $600 (in this section referred to as "Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation").

(f) Fraud and Overpayments

(2) Repayment.--In the case of individuals who have received amounts of Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation to which they were not entitled, the State shall require such individuals to repay the amounts of such Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation to the State agency...

Here, the claimant is disqualified from receiving regular unemployment insurance (UI) benefits. Accordingly, this also disqualifies claimant from receiving Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC). The claimant was overpaid $4,800.00 in Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC).

The claimant may have to repay the benefits received thus far, unless the claimant applies and is approved for PUA, as directed in the paragraph below.

DECISION:

The unemployment insurance decision dated October 30, 2020, (reference 05), is affirmed. The claimant was overpaid $4,800.00 in Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC).
