APPEAL NO. 22A-UI-11517-B2T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 03/29/20
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.5-1 – Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated April 28, 2022, reference 01, which held claimant ineligible for unemployment insurance benefits. After due notice, a hearing was scheduled for and held on June 23, 2022. Claimant participated. Employer participated by Jeff Chitti. Claimant's Exhibits A-C were admitted into evidence.

ISSUE:

The issue in this matter is whether claimant quit for good cause attributable to employer.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds: Claimant last worked for employer on May 12, 2020. Claimant quit his work on May 16, 2020 as he found work in Altoona and was moving in with his girlfriend.

Claimant worked as a lead hanger for employer. Throughout his time working, claimant was not written up for poor performance or poor attendance. On May 15, 2020 claimant went to Altoona to interview for a job. On May 16, 2020 claimant stated he was called by an assistant human resources officer and told, "We don't need you anymore." Claimant then texted his office assistant friend who confirmed that he would be no longer working there. Claimant was given no further reason why he would not at least be able to work until he started work at his new job in Altoona.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(38) provides:

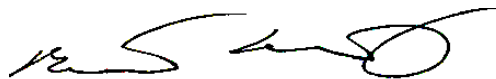

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

(38) Where the claimant gave the employer an advance notice of resignation which caused the employer to discharge the claimant prior to the proposed date of resignation, no disqualification shall be imposed from the last day of work until the proposed date of resignation; however, benefits will be denied effective the proposed date of resignation.

The administrative law judge holds that the evidence has established that employer found out claimant was leaving the employment for other employment in another area, and was going to be ending his job in a few weeks. Claimant was to start his new job on May 26, 2020. Employer chose to end the current job immediately. Claimant is eligible to receive unemployment benefits for the one week ending May 23, 2020.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated April 28, 2022, reference 01, is reversed. Unemployment insurance benefits are allowed for the one week from the time period of May 17, 2020 through May 23, 2020 when claimant's quit was to be effective, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.
