APPEAL NO: 09A-UI-02018-DT

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

CARGILL MEAT SOLUTIONS CORP
Employer

OC: 01/04/09 R: 03
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Section 96.5-1 – Voluntary Leaving
§ 17A.12-3 – Non-appearance of Party
871 IAC 26.8(5) – Decision on the Record

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

An appeal was filed from a representative's unemployment insurance decision dated February 4, 2009 (reference 01) that concluded Christine A. Kellner (claimant/appellant) was not eligible for unemployment insurance benefits after a separation from employment from Cargill Meat Solutions Corporation (employer/respondent). A telephone hearing was scheduled for 12:00 p.m. on March 3, 2009. The claimant received the hearing notice and responded by calling the Appeals Section on February 17, 2009. She indicated that she would be available at the scheduled time for the hearing at a specified telephone number. However, when the administrative law judge called that number at the scheduled time for the hearing, the claimant was not available. Therefore, the claimant did not participate in the hearing. The employer called in for the hearing and indicated that Alicia Alonzo would participate as the employer's representative. When the administrative law judge contacted Ms. Alonzo for the hearing, she agreed that the administrative law judge should make a determination based upon a review of the information in the administrative file. The administrative law judge considered the record closed at 12:10 p.m. At 12:26 p.m., the claimant recalled the Appeals Section and requested that the record be reopened. Based on the appellant's failure to participate in the hearing, the administrative file, and the law, the administrative law judge enters the following findings of fact, reasoning and conclusions of law and decision.

ISSUE:

Should the representative's decision be affirmed on a basis of a review of the available information?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The parties were properly notified of the scheduled hearing on this appeal. The claimant/appellant failed to be available at the scheduled day and time set for the hearing and did not participate in the hearing or request a postponement of the hearing as required by the hearing notice. The reason the claimant was unavailable was that on March 2 her landlord had informed her that she needed to be moved out of her rental property by March 3. The claimant began moving on March 2 but was still moving and unpacking on March 3. At the scheduled time for the hearing the claimant had lost track of time and had left her phone in her truck. When she returned to her truck and recovered her phone she discovered the message the administrative law judge had left when calling for the hearing. She then responded by returning the call to the Appeals Section at 12:26 p.m.

The administrative law judge has conducted a careful review of the administrative file to determine whether the unemployment insurance decision should be affirmed.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The Iowa Administrative Procedures Act § 17A.12-3 provides in pertinent part:

If a party fails to appear or participate in a contested case proceeding after proper service of notice, the presiding officer may, if no adjournment is granted, enter a default decision or proceed with the hearing and make a decision in the absence of the party. ... If a decision is rendered against a party who failed to appear for the hearing and the presiding officer is timely requested by that party to vacate the decision for good cause, the time for initiating a further appeal is stayed pending a determination by the presiding officer to grant or deny the request. If adequate reasons are provided showing good cause for the party's failure to appear, the presiding officer shall vacate the decision and, after proper service of notice, conduct another evidentiary hearing. If adequate reasons are not provided showing good cause for the party's failure to appear, the presiding officer shall deny the motion to vacate.

871 IAC 26.14(7) provides:

(7) If a party has not responded to a notice of telephone hearing by providing the appeals section with the names and telephone numbers of its witnesses by the scheduled time of the hearing, the presiding officer may proceed with the hearing.

a. If an absent party responds to the hearing notice while the hearing is in progress, the presiding officer shall pause to admit the party, summarize the hearing to that point, administer the oath, and resume the hearing.

b. If a party responds to the notice of hearing after the record has been closed and any party which has participated is no longer on the telephone line, the presiding officer shall not take the evidence of the late party. Instead, the presiding officer shall inquire as to why the party was late in responding to the notice of hearing. For good cause shown, the presiding officer shall reopen the record and cause further notice of hearing to be issued to all parties of record. The record shall not be reopened if the presiding officer does not find good cause for the party's late response to the notice of hearing.

c. Failure to read or follow the instructions on the notice of hearing shall not constitute good cause for reopening the record.

At issue is a request to reopen the record made after the hearing had concluded. The request to reopen the record is denied because the party making the request failed to participate by reading and following the instructions on the hearing notice.

The administrative law judge has carefully reviewed evidence in the record and concludes that the unemployment insurance decision previously entered in this case is correct and should be affirmed. 871 IAC 25.8(5).

DECISION:

The unemployment insurance decision dated February 4, 2009 (reference 01) is affirmed. The decision disqualifying the claimant from receiving benefits remains in effect.
