APPEAL 22A-UI-13848-DH-T
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

OC: 04/24/22
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) - Able and Available to Work
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(26) - Part-Time Same Hours, Wages
Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) - Total and Partial Unemployment
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(2) - Same Base Period Employment
Iowa Code § 96.6(2) - Timeliness of Appeal

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

June 12, 2022, Preston Molloy, claimant/appellant, appealed from the May 26, 2022, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits as of 04/24/22 since claimant was still employed in his job at the same hours and wages. Notices of hearing were mailed to the parties last known addresses of record for a telephone hearing scheduled for July 25, 2022, at 11:00AM. Employer, Walmart, Inc., did not participate, sending in a letter advising same. Claimant personally participated. The following hearings were held together as part of a consolidated hearing: Appeals 22A-UI-13848-DH-T, and 22A-UI-13849-DH-T. Judicial notice was taken of the administrative record, including the appeal, and DBRO.

ISSUES:

Is the claimant able to and available for work?
Is the claimant still employed at the same hours and wages?
Is the claimant totally, partially, or temporarily unemployed?
Is the employer's account subject to charge?
Is the appeal timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having heard the testimony and reviewed the evidence in the record, the undersigned finds:

The above decision was mailed to the claimant/appellant's last known address of record on 05/26/2022. To be timely, an appeal needed to be filed on or before 06/06/22, the first nonholiday weekday ten days after the mailing date. Claimant never received the decision. The first knowledge he had of the matter was the overpayment decision in companion case 22A-UI-13849, which was found to have been timely appealed on 06/12/22.

Claimant is employed by Walmart, Inc., as a full-time associate with a set schedule. Claimant was laid off from work effective April 24, 2022, through May 7, 2022, receiving no hours of work in that window and no pay. Claimant returned from the layoff on May 8, 2022. Claimant was not the only one laid off. Claimant remained employed by employer, reporting to work at the end of the layoff period. Claimant was otherwise able to work and available to work during the time frame of April 24, 2022, through May 7, 2022.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The first issue to be considered in this appeal is whether the appellant's appeal is timely. The administrative law judge determines it is timely.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: “[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.”

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information/ or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The ten calendar days for appeal begins running on the mailing date. The "decision date" found in the upper right-hand portion of the representative's decision, unless otherwise corrected immediately below that entry, is presumptive evidence of the date of mailing. Gaskins v. Unempl. Comp. Bd. of Rev., 429 A.2d 138 (Pa. Comm. 1981); Johnson v. Board of Adjustment, 239 N.W.2d 873, 92 A.L.R.3d 304 (Iowa 1976).

The record in this case shows that more than ten calendar days elapsed between the mailing date and the date this appeal was filed. The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott, 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). The question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. Iowa Emp't Sec. Comm'n, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. Iowa Emp't Sec. Comm'n, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

Claimant did not have an opportunity to appeal the fact-finder's decision because the decision was not received. Without notice of a disqualification, no meaningful opportunity for appeal exists. See Smith v. Iowa Employment Security Commission, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

Claimant learned of the disqualification from the overpayment decision in 22A-UI-13849-DH-T. 22A-UI-13849-DH-T found in part that claimant timely appealed that decision, and therefore this appeal shall be accepted as timely.

The next issues to decide are whether claimant is still employed at the same hours and wages, whether claimant was totally partially or temporarily unemployed, whether claimant is able and available to work, and whether the employer's account is subject to charge.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Code section 96.1A(37) provides:

"Total and partial unemployment".

a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.

b. An individual shall be deemed "partially unemployed" in any week in which either of the following apply:

(1) While employed at the individual's then regular job, the individual works less than the regular full-time week and in which the individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

(2) The individual, having been separated from the individual's regular job, earns at odd jobs less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

c. An individual shall be deemed "temporarily unemployed" if for a period, verified by the department, not to exceed four consecutive weeks, the individual is unemployed due to a plant shutdown, vacation, inventory, lack of work, or emergency from the individual's regular job or trade in which the individual worked full-time and will again work full-time, if the individual's employment, although temporarily suspended, has not been terminated

The Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(26) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(26) Where a claimant is still employed in a part-time job at the same hours and wages as contemplated in the original contract for hire and is not working on a reduced workweek basis different from the contract for hire, such claimant cannot be considered partially unemployed.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(2)(a) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (2) The amount of regular benefits plus fifty percent of the amount of extended benefits paid to an eligible individual shall be charged against the account of the employers in the base period in the inverse chronological order in which the employment of the individual occurred.

(a) However, if the individual to whom the benefits are paid is in the employ of a base period employer at the time the individual is receiving the benefits, and the individual is receiving the same employment from the employer that the individual received during the individual's base period, benefits paid to the individual shall not be charged against the account of the employer. This provision applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding subparagraph (3) and section 96.8, subsection 5.

Claimant was laid off from work April 24, 2022, through May 7, 2022, receiving no hours of work and no pay in that time window. Claimant was not still employed at the same hours and wages. Claimant meets the definition of temporarily unemployed. Claimant was able and available for work during April 24, 2022, through May 7, 2022, and shall be paid regular unemployment benefits for the weeks in question, so long as he is otherwise eligible. He returned from the layoff. As such, Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(2)(a) does not come into play and the employer's account is subject to charge.

DECISION:

The May 26, 2022, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits as of 04/24/22, is REVERSED. Claimant was not employed at the same hours. He was temporarily unemployed. Claimant was able and available to work. Claimant to be paid regular unemployment benefits, so long as he is otherwise eligible, and the employer's account shall be charged.
