ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 05/31/20
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal
Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit from Employment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On May 17, 2022, claimant Zoe K. Hennessey filed an appeal from the February 24, 2021 (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based on a determination that claimant voluntarily quit her employment. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephonic hearing was held at 1:00 p.m. on Tuesday, July 5, 2022. Appeal numbers 22A-UI-12610-LJ-T and 22A-UI-12611-LJ-T were heard together and created one record. The claimant, Zoe K. Hennessey, participated. The employer, Target Corporation, participated through Michelle Anderson, Human Resources. Department Exhibits D-1, D-2, and D-3 were received and admitted into the record without objection. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Did the claimant file a timely appeal?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The decision denying claimant benefits based on her separation from Target Corporation was mailed to claimant's last known address of record on February 24, 2021. Claimant believes she received the decision, though she could not recall when she received it. The first sentence of the decision states, "If this decision denies benefits and is not reversed on appeal, it may result in an overpayment which you will be required to repay." The decision contained a warning that an appeal must be postmarked or received by the Appeals Bureau by March 6, 2021.

Claimant knew that her separation from the employer disqualified her from receiving benefits. She did not pursue an appeal of the decision in 2021 because she "did not think there was anything to appeal." Later, after claimant received the decision finding her overpaid multiple types of benefits, she filed an appeal on May 17, 2022. (Exhibit D-3) That appeal was applied to this decision.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant failed to file a timely appeal.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: “[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.”

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982).

Here, the claimant received the decision in the mail and, therefore, had an opportunity to file an appeal prior to the appeal deadline. Claimant's testimony that she did not receive the decision was not credible, and she herself contradicted it and later said she did receive the decision.

She also testified she both did and did not understand that she could appeal the decision. The administrative law judge believes that claimant knew she could file an appeal but decided not to because she did not think it would affect the benefits she had already received.

Claimant's delay was not due to an error or misinformation from the Department or due to delay or other action of the United States Postal Service. No other good cause reason has been established for the delay. Claimant's appeal simply was not filed on time, and therefore the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction (authority) to decide the other issue in this matter.

DECISION:

The February 24, 2021, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. The appeal in this case was not timely, and the decision of the representative remains in effect.
