871 IAC 26.8(5) - Decision on the Record

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant, James Webber, filed an appeal from a decision dated February 3, 2005, reference 04. The decision notified him his Iowa income tax refund was being withheld in order to offset an overpayment of unemployment benefits. After due notice was issued a hearing was held by telephone conference call on February 23, 2005. The claimant participated on his own behalf.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having heard the testimony of the witness, and having considered all the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: James Webber was determined to be overpaid a total amount of $488.00. One credit of $74.00 was issued and the remaining balance is $414.00.

He has filed an Iowa income tax return and his refund is greater than $50.00.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

871 IAC 25.16 provides:

State payment offset. An individual who is owed a payment from the state of at least $50 and owes an overpayment of benefits of at least $50 is subject to an offset against the individual's payment from the state to recover all or a part of the individual's overpayment of benefits and to reimburse the department of revenue and finance for administrative costs to execute the offset. All overpayments, whether fraud or nonfraud, are included in this process.

(1) If the individual has made no attempt to repay the overpayment of benefits within the preceding six months, the individual's name and social security number are given to the department of revenue and finance.

(2) The department of revenue and finance notifies the department that an overpaid individual is owed a payment from the state. The department then notifies the overpaid individual of the potential offset against the individual's payment from the state.

(3) In the case of a joint or combined income tax filing, the individual has ten days from the postmark date on the decision to request a split of the refund to ensure the other party's portion of the refund is not offset. When a request is made, the department notifies the department of revenue and finance to make the split. The department then notifies the overpaid individual of the amount of the offset. If the request for split of the refund is not made timely, the entire income tax refund becomes subject to offset.

(4) Any appeal by the individual is limited to the validity of job service's authority to recoup the overpayment through offset.

(5) In the event that the amount of the offset exceeds the remaining overpayment, the department shall issue to the individual a special check equal to the amount of the excess.

This rule is intended to implement Iowa Code sections 96.11 and 421.17(26,29).

The claimant was found to be overpaid unemployment benefits and his current balance is more than $50.00. His current Iowa income tax refund is also more than $50.00. Under the provisions of the above Administrative Code section, the Iowa Workforce Development Department may withhold the tax refund to offset the overpayment of benefits.

DECISION:

The unemployment insurance decision dated February 3, 2005, reference 04, is affirmed. The decision withholding the claimant's Iowa income tax refund remains in effect.
