APPEAL NO. 24A-UI-03551-B2T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 04/02/23
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5-1 – Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated March 27, 2024, (reference 03) which held claimant ineligible for unemployment insurance benefits. After due notice, a hearing was scheduled for and held on April 25, 2024. Claimant participated. Employer participated by Sarah Determan. Employer's Exhibit 1 was admitted into evidence.

ISSUE:

The issue in this matter is whether claimant quit for good cause attributable to employer.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds: Claimant last worked for employer on February 19, 2024. Claimant voluntarily quit working for employer when he refused to submit to a 'fit for work' testing after being off from work following medical procedures following a medical emergency that happened while claimant was driving for employer.

Claimant worked as a yard or shag driver for employer. In this position claimant is required to have DOT certification. Claimant received an updated DOT certification in November of 2023. After receiving this certification, claimant had multiple accidents at work in a short period in February of 2024. After the most recent incident on February 19, 2024, later in the day, claimant had a medical emergency while at work and was taken to the hospital. Claimant was in the hospital for a week. Claimant had multiple serious medical issues.

Employer stated they shared documents for leave requests with claimant, but they were not filled out or returned. Claimant stated that he shared with employer that his heart no longer functioned at a rate that the DOT would certify him to be a driver. Before the claimant returned to work, employer asked that he take a 'fit for duty' medical test to ensure that claimant's health was such that he could stand up to the requirements of the job. Claimant refused to take the test as he knew that his heart was no longer of the strength necessary to pass the DOT requirements.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

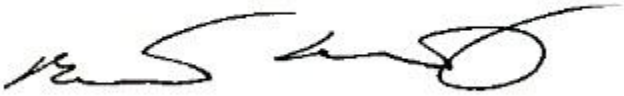

The administrative law judge holds that the evidence has failed to establish that claimant voluntarily quit for good cause attributable to employer when claimant terminated the employment relationship because he did not want to take a test that would show whether he had an ongoing fitness for the duty as a truck driver.

Ordinarily "good cause" is derived from the facts of each case keeping in mind the public policy stated in Iowa Code Section 96.2. O'Brien v. EAB 494 N.W.2d 660, 662 (Iowa 1993) (citing Wiese v. IA Dept. of Job Serv., 389 N.W.2d 676, 680 (Iowa 1986)). "The term encompasses real circumstances, adequate excuses that will bear the test of reason, just grounds for the action, and always the test of good faith." Wiese v. IA Dept. of Job Serv., 389 N.W.2d 676, 680 (Iowa 1986). "Common sense and prudence must be exercised in evaluating all of the circumstances that led to an employee's quit in order to attribute the cause for the termination." Id. In this matter, claimant's actions immediately prior to his hospitalization indicate that he was struggling greatly at his job. He had two accidents in an 11 day period. Employer was reasonable in questioning whether claimant had the ongoing physical requirements necessary to continue to be a DOT certifiable driver.

Claimant's quit as a result of this reasonable request was not for good cause attributable to employer. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated March 27, 2024, (reference 03) is affirmed. Unemployment insurance benefits shall be withheld until claimant has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times claimant's weekly benefit amount, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.
