Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.26(19) – Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On July 25, 2022, the claimant filed an appeal from the unemployment insurance decision dated July 18, 2022, (Reference 01) that denied unemployment insurance benefits. Notice of hearing was mailed to the parties' last known addresses of record for a telephone hearing to be held at 9:00 a.m. on September 1, 2022, at Des Moines, Iowa. The claimant participated personally. The employer participated through Luke Wilkins, Store. The hearing in this matter was consolidated with the hearing in Appeal Number 22A-UI-15558-DS-T. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Did claimant voluntarily quit the employment without good cause attributable to employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge finds that:

The claimant worked for this employer from January 5, 1990, until June 13, 2022. The claimant was an Asset Protection Coach and reported to Luke Wilkins. In May 2022, the claimant applied for a medical leave of absence. The claimant last worked on April 29, 2022, and was on a leave of absence pending the outcome of her request for a medical leave after that date. The leave of absence was ultimately denied, and the claimant agreed to return to work on June 8, 2022. The claimant never returned to work and was considered to have quit the employment as of June 13, 2022. Specifically, the claimant missed work without excuse or notification to her employer on June 8, 2022, June 9, 2022, and June 10, 2022. Continuing work was available had she not quit the employment, and her job was not in jeopardy.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's separation from the employment was without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are denied.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(4) provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

- (4) The claimant was absent for three days without giving notice to employer in violation of company rule.

The claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). "Good cause" for leaving employment must be that which is reasonable to the average person, not the overly sensitive individual or the claimant in particular. Uniweld Products v. Indus. Relations Comm'n, 277 So.2d 827 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1973). A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention. Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (Iowa 1980).

The claimant admits she quit the employment due to stress. The claimant declined to provide any other information about her reasons for quitting and has not met her burden of proving that the quit was for good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The July 18, 2022, (Reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. The claimant voluntarily left the employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are withheld until such time as she has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times her weekly benefit amount, provided she is otherwise eligible.
