DECISION

OC: 09/24/23
Claimant: Respondent (6)

Iowa Code § 96.5(2)(a) - Discharge
Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) – Default Decision
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.14(7) – Dismissal of Appeal on Default

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On October 23, 2023, the employer filed a timely appeal from the October 11, 2023 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits to the claimant, provided the claimant was otherwise eligible, and that held the employer's account could be charged for benefits, based on the deputy's conclusion the claimant was discharged on September 27, 2023 for not disqualifying reason. A notice of hearing was mailed to the parties' last-known addresses of record for a telephone hearing scheduled for 10:00 a.m. on November 7, 2023. The claimant did not comply with the hearing notice instructions to call the toll-free number at the time of the hearing and did not participate in the appeal hearing. The employer appeared at the scheduled start of the hearing through Azra Kuduzovic, agreed to call back for the hearing at 11:15 a.m., but then did not appear or participate in the hearing. Based upon the employer/appellant's failure to participate in the hearing and the law, the administrative law judge enters the following findings of fact, reasoning and conclusions of law and decision.

ISSUE:

Whether the appeal should be dismissed based on the employer/appellant's failure to appear and participate.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The employer is the appellant in this matter. The parties were properly notified of the scheduled hearing for this appeal. The employer/appellant did not participate or request a postponement of the hearing as required by the hearing notice.

The hearing notice instructed the parties as follows:

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

YOU MUST CALL the toll-free number: ... at the time of the hearing. You may call up to 5 minutes before the hearing. You are not the organizer – Do NOT press 2. The administrative law judge WILL NOT call you for the hearing, you MUST call into the number provided above to participate. Failure to participate in the hearing may result in the dismissal of your appeal.

The back page of the hearing notice provides further instruction and warning:

Failure to Participate or Register for Appeal Hearing

If you do not participate in the hearing, the judge may dismiss the appeal or issue a decision without considering your evidence.

At 9:59 a.m. on November 7, 2023, employer/appellant representative/witness, Azra Kuduzovic, called the toll-free number for the hearing. At that time, the administrative law judge was detained in another hearing. See 23A-UI-10007-JT-T. The administrative law judge gave Ms. Kuduzovic the option of remaining on the line until the earlier hearing concluded or calling back 10:15 a.m. Ms. Kuduzovic elected to call at 10:15 a.m. However, Ms. Kuduzovic did not call at 10:15 a.m. or thereafter. The hearing was scheduled for 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. The administrative law judge remained in the hearing conference call and waited until 11:02 a.m. for the employer/appellant to appear. At 10:36 a.m., the administrative law judge called the number from which Ms. Kuduzovic had made her 9:59 a.m. call. When no one answered, the administrative law judge left a voicemail message directing the employer to call in for the hearing. The administrative law judge warned that the record would close and a default decision entered if the employer did not appear by 11:00 a.m. At 11:02 a.m., when neither party had appeared, the administrative law judge closed the hearing record.

The October 11, 2023 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision allowed benefits to the claimant, provided the claimant was otherwise eligible, and held the employer's account could be charged for benefits, based on the deputy's conclusion the claimant was discharged on September 27, 2023 for not disqualifying reason.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The Iowa Administrative Procedure Act at Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) provides that if a party fails to appear or participate in a hearing after proper service of notice, the judge may enter a default decision or proceed with the hearing and make a decision in the absence of the party.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.14(7) provides:

(7) If a party has not responded to a notice of telephone hearing by providing the appeals bureau with the names and telephone numbers of the persons who are participating in the hearing by the scheduled starting time of the hearing or is not available at the telephone number provided, the presiding officer may proceed with the hearing. If the appealing party fails to provide a telephone number or is unavailable for the hearing, the presiding officer may decide the appealing party is in default and dismiss the appeal as provided in Iowa Code section 17A.12(3). The record may be reopened if the absent party makes a request to reopen the hearing in writing under subrule 26.8(3) and shows good cause for reopening the hearing.

In this case, the employer/appellant did not call the toll-free number listed on the hearing notice at the time of the hearing. The appellant is in default. The appeal should be dismissed.

If the appellant disagrees with this decision, the appellant may appeal the decision pursuant to the instructions on the last page of this decision.

DECISION:

The employer defaulted on the appeal. The appeal is dismissed. The October 11, 2023 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits to the claimant, provided the claimant was otherwise eligible, and that held the employer's account could be charged for benefits, based on the deputy's conclusion the claimant was discharged on September 27, 2023 for not disqualifying reason, remains in effect.
