APPEAL NO. 23A-UI-07312-B2T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 04/23/23
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5-1 – Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated July 21, 2023, (reference 06) which held claimant ineligible for unemployment insurance benefits. After due notice, a hearing was scheduled for and held on August 11, 2023. Claimant participated. Employer participated by Angel Thompson. Interpretive services were provided by CTS Language Link

ISSUE:

The issue in this matter is whether claimant quit for good cause attributable to employer.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds: Claimant last worked for employer on June 5, 2023. After June 5, 2023, claimant was a no call, no show for work for three consecutive shifts. She was deemed to have voluntarily quit by the employer.

Claimant worked as a part time digital personal shopper for employer. Close to the time of the job separation, she was working one four hour shift a week. For her scheduled shifts of June 12, 19, and 26, 2023 claimant did not show for the shifts and did not call off work. Claimant stated that she had historically called off work when she was ill, but now the supervisor had changed, and with that change was also a new phone number that claimant did not know. Claimant was asked why she didn't attempt to call a general number or visit the store. Claimant responded that her car was not working at the time and she did not have transportation. She further stated that the call in number changed. Employer disputed this. Employer stated that company policy indicates that someone must call off work if they are not going to be in for that day.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(4) provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

(4) The claimant was absent for three days without giving notice to employer in violation of company rule.

The administrative law judge holds that the evidence has failed to establish that claimant voluntarily quit for good cause attributable to employer when claimant terminated the employment relationship because she did not call or show for work for three straight scheduled shift as a result of illness and a lack of transportation.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated July 21, 2023, (reference 06) is affirmed. Unemployment insurance benefits shall be withheld until claimant has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times claimant's weekly benefit amount, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.
