RODNEY D PETERMAN
Claimant

APPEAL 23A-UI-11709-SN-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

JOHN DEERE CONSTRUCTION
Employer

OC: 02/26/23
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal
Iowa Code section 96.1A(37) – Total and Partial Unemployment
Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(26) – Availability Disqualifications Same Hours and Wages
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(2) – Same Base Period Employment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant, Rodney A. Peterman, filed an appeal from the April 4, 2023 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits effective March 5, 2023, reasoning he was still enjoying the same hours and wages as in his original contract of hire. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on January 5, 2024, at 10:00 a.m. The claimant participated. The employer did not participate. Official notice was taken of the administrative records.

ISSUES:

Whether the claimant's appeal is timely filed? If it is not timely filed, were there circumstances beyond the claimant's control such that extension of the appeal period is warranted to preserve his due process rights?

Whether claimant is totally, partially or temporarily unemployed?

Whether claimant is able to and available for work?

Whether claimant is still employed at the same hours and wages?

Whether employer's account is subject to charge?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

A disqualification decision was mailed to claimant's last known address of record on April 4, 2023. The claimant received the decision within ten days.

The decision states the following, "If this decision denies benefits and is not reversed on appeal, it may result in an overpayment which you will be required to repay." (Exhibit D1)

The decision contained a warning that an appeal must be postmarked or received by the Appeals Section by April 14, 2023. (Exhibit D1) The appeal was not filed until December 13, 2023, which is after the date noticed on the disqualification decision. (Exhibit D2)

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The administrative law judge found the claimant did not file a timely appeal. He further finds there were not circumstances beyond the claimant's control such that extension of the appeal period is warranted to preserve due process rights.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of issuance of the notice of the filing of the claim to protest payment of benefits to the claimant. All interested parties shall select a format as specified by the department to receive such notifications. The representative shall promptly examine the claim and any protest, take the initiative to ascertain relevant information concerning the claim, and, on the basis of the facts found by the representative, shall determine whether or not the claim is valid, the week with respect to which benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and its maximum duration, and whether any disqualification shall be imposed. The claimant has the burden of proving that the claimant meets the basic eligibility conditions of section 96.4. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to section 96.5, except as provided by this subsection. The claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence showing that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsections 10 and 11, and has the burden of proving that a voluntary quit pursuant to section 96.5, subsection 1, was for good cause attributable to the employer and that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraphs "a" through "h". Unless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was issued, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision. If an administrative law judge affirms a decision of the representative, or the appeal board affirms a decision of the administrative law judge allowing benefits, the benefits shall be paid regardless of any appeal which is thereafter taken, but if the decision is finally reversed, no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid and this relief from charges shall apply to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

The ten calendar days for appeal begins running on the mailing date. The "decision date" found in the upper right-hand portion of the representative's decision, unless otherwise corrected immediately below that entry, is presumptive evidence of the date of mailing. Gaskins v. Unempl. Comp. Bd. of Rev., 429 A.2d 138 (Pa. Comm. 1981); Johnson v. Board of Adjustment, 239 N.W.2d 873, 92 A.L.R.3d 304 (Iowa 1976).

The record in this case shows that more than ten calendar days elapsed between the mailing date and the date this appeal was filed. The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott, 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). The question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

The record shows that the appellant did have a reasonable opportunity to file a timely appeal. The claimant received the decision at the time of its mailing. The claimant claims he was confused because he had already received benefits, but the decision explained that an overpayment would result if he did not appeal it. The claimant had all the information he needed to make the appeal from the decision itself.

The administrative law judge concludes that failure to file a timely appeal within the time prescribed by the Iowa Employment Security Law was not due to any Agency error or misinformation or delay or other action of the United States Postal Service pursuant to 871 IAC 24.35(2). The administrative law judge further concludes that the appeal was not timely filed pursuant to Iowa Code § 96.6(2), and the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the appeal. See Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979) and Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877 (Iowa 1979).
