APPEAL 23A-UI-11572-S2-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 10/29/23
Claimant: Respondent (2)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit
Iowa Code § 96.5(2)a – Discharge for Misconduct
Iowa Code § 96.3(7) – Recovery of Benefit Overpayment
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.10 – Employer/Representative Participation Fact-finding Interview

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer filed an appeal from the December 4, 2023, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits based upon claimant's discharge. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on January 3, 2024. Claimant Kyle Wolin did not participate. Employer Lowe's Home Centers LLC participated through assistant store managers David Manning and Erin Baxa. Employer's Exhibits 1 – 5 were received. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Did claimant voluntarily quit the employment with good cause attributable to employer?
Has claimant been overpaid unemployment insurance benefits, and if so, can the repayment of those benefits to the agency be waived?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant was employed full-time as a flooring sales specialist from December 5, 2022, and was separated from employment on September 11, 2023, when he quit.

Employer has a policy in place which requires employees to call in at least two hours prior to the start of their shift if they are not going to be at work. There is also a policy in place which states that if employees are a no-call/no-show for three consecutive workdays, they are considered to have abandoned their jobs and are separated from employment. (Exhibit 4). Claimant was aware of these policies. (Exhibit 2).

Claimant was absent from work without notifying employer on August 7, 2023. Claimant was absent from work without calling the next two days, August 8 and August 9, 2023. Claimant never returned to work. Employer reached out to claimant by telephone and text message, but he did not reach out to employer. Continuing work was available for claimant and his job was not in jeopardy.

The administrative record reflects that claimant has not received any unemployment benefits since filing a claim with an effective date of October 29, 2023. Employer did not participate in the fact-finding interview.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes as follows:

Iowa Code §96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

A voluntary quitting means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer and requires an intention to terminate the employment. Wills v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 447 N.W. 2d 137, 138 (Iowa 1989). A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention. Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (Iowa 1980); Peck v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 492 N.W.2d 438 (Iowa Ct. App. 1992).

In this case claimant was absent from work on the following dates: August 7, August 8, and August 9, 2023. Claimant knew that he was supposed to report any absences prior to his scheduled shift start time. Claimant failed to report these absences in violation of the employer's policy.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(4) provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code § 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code § 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

- (4) The claimant was absent for three days without giving notice to employer in violation of company rule.

An employer is entitled to expect its employees to report to work as scheduled or to be notified when and why the employee is unable to report to work. Inasmuch as the claimant failed to report for work or notify the employer for three consecutive workdays in violation of the employer policy, the claimant is considered to have voluntarily left employment without good cause attributable to the employer.

Because no benefits were paid to claimant, the issues of overpayment, repayment and chargeability are moot.

DECISION:

The December 4, 2023, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. The claimant voluntarily left his employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are withheld until such time as he has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times his weekly benefit amount, provided he is otherwise eligible. The issues of overpayment, repayment and chargeability are moot.
